Michael Jasso, Special Assistant

Mr. Jasso joined the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development in June, 2001. As a Special Assistant, Mr. Jasso overseas the involvement of the Deputy Mayor's office in a number of redevelopment initiatives, most significantly the District's Tax Increment Finance (TIF) Program. He is currently managing the Deputy Mayor's role in providing financing of almost $300 million which will result in over $1 billion of new project investment in the District.

Prior to coming to the District of Columbia, Mr. Jasso worked in both the public and private sectors in Chicago. Most significantly, Mr. Jasso was an Assistant Commissioner with the City of Chicago's Department of Planning and Development where he oversaw the designation of over 5000 acres of TIF districts.

Mr. Jasso holds a B.A. in Architecture from Princeton University. He was awarded an MBA from the University of Texas at Austin where he was a Consortium for Graduate Study in Management Fellow, a nationally recognized competitive fellowship program for qualified minority candidates.

BZA
Case No. 17232
Exhibit No. 42

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO. 17232
EXHIBIT NO. 42