Re:Application #17292

Dear Members of the Board of Zoning Adjustment,

I am the owner of 1808 37th Street, NW, Washington, DC which overlooks 3907 S Street, NW on the rear.

I am opposed to granting a special exception to allow a two-story rear addition to an existing single-family row dwelling under section 223, for not meeting the open court requirements (sec 406), in the R-3 District at premises 3707 S Street, NW (Square, 1308, Lot 572.

It would be a shame to cut off my view looking west from by rear porch. It would further affect the light and air of the rest of the houses on the north side of the thirty-seven hundred block of S Street, NW.

While I am now renting my house, I plan at some future time to return to my house.

Sincerely,

Laura Gill
