Gary M. Peterson, Chairman

Washington, DC 20002-6016

Dear Chairman Peterson:

I have known Allie Ham as a downstairs neighbor for several months. She has been an excellent neighbor and has always been thoughtful of our needs.

I understand that her business offers licensed acupuncture, physical therapy, skin care and massage.

As I am sure you know, the zoning regulations of massage establishments in Zone C-2, Title 11, and Section 731 require a special exception for a massage. I am told that the conditions of this special exception for licensed massage in this zone are as follows:

- 1) It shall be compatible with other uses in the area.
- 2) The use shall not be objectionable because of its effect on the character of the neighborhood or because of noise, traffic or other conditions, and
- 3) It shall not have an adverse impact on religious, educational, or other institutional facilities located in the area.

I see that her business does not impede with any of these requirements and therefore support this special exception for Creative Hands Massage and Therapies.

Capitol Court is a commercial complex surrounded by homes and businesses. The businesses there add to the quality of the neighborhood and I am comfortable with Creative Hands placement there.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely

Brad Fitch
