Elonda Edwards
Burden of Proof
Elonda's Day Care
816 6th streets NE Washington, DC 20002

Dear whomever this may concern:

My name is Elonda Edwards I live on 816 6th street NE Washington, DC 20002. This application meets the specific requirements, because my home can provide a minimum of thirty-five square feet of floor area per child and employee. Which will include the basement and first floor. I will also have a maximum of three employees to comply with the requirement of twelve children. There will not be any interior structural alteration; the residential home will stay the same. The attended use of my business will not produce a level of noise that exceeds the level normally associated with. I will only have four infants and toddlers 2.5 ages on the first floor and older children on the basement level which is already in use. Vehicular trips to the premises by visitors will not exceed more than eight trips on the daily bases. Parents are not allowed to park in the back alley to disturb other residents parking, or cause traffic. Most of the parent's have different drop-in and pick-up times, so no more than three parents will be on the premises at a time. I will also display a sign that will not exceed one hundred forty-four square inches. The sign will only state Elonda's Day Care and the type of home occupation.

Sincerely,

ELONDA EDWARDS
