

Tywania Fletcher-Langley
Executive Director and Founder
Role and responsibility

As a leader of, BEYOND LIGHT, Inc my ability is to create capacity for innovation across the organization relies which heavily on getting the right data, interpreting the results, and making the right decisions. The three (3) phase programs is designed for forward thinking executives with a responsibility to develop and implement the organizational strategy and grow the business with gainful insight into the population of which BEYOND LIGHT, Inc services.

BEYOND LIGHT, Inc Our Excellence is comprised of five essential business topics critical to successful management that promote continuous growth and innovation for individuals and organizations. for conscientious scheduling of work responsibilities and the opportunity for further expansion to other cities who wish to Model behind BEYOND LIGHT, Inc Behavioral health (3) phase curriculums.

Testimony:

I have been a clinician in Washington DC for over 23 years, working with all population: children; Youths. Families; male and Female adults, in the following areas; Sexual abuse; neglect, trauma, mental health and substance abuse. Case management, clinical presentation

Women's and Men's transitional programs-(Director)

Child and family services

Department of Youth Rehab

Psychiatric Services

Substance abuse- Detox services

In and Out patient services

2000-2002- History: Consultant work with Martha Table in Baltimore Maryland. Establishing roles and operational functioning of a Women's Transitional Program. BEYOND LIGHT, Inc has been successfully operational Since 2004.

OUR CLINICAL team are professions who has a Treatment Hx of 25-30 years or more in the field of Psychiatry; Psychology; Therapist and Substance abuse, who has also, managed Women and Men Transitional Program, Mental health facilities and SUBSTANCE ABUSE/Etc.

Tywania Fletcher-Langley