

Joshua O. Hill, AIA, LEED® AP, NCARB
Principal Architect and Founding Partner, Hill & Hurtt Architects, PLLC joshua@hillandhurtt.com 202.854.1495

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Hill & Hurtt Architects
Washington, DC

Principal Architect and Founding Partner, 2016 - Present

- Leadership in all phases of design, construction, project management, client interaction, office administration, project interviews, team scheduling, pro-bono work, management, and marketing.
- Procurement of new clients and projects.
- Developing project and office budgets, proposals, fee schedules, and billings.

Muse Architects
Bethesda, MD

Associate, 2001 - 2016

- Participation in all phases of design, construction, project management, client interaction, office administration, project interviews, team scheduling, pro-bono work, and marketing.
- Work in conjunction with all team members on enhancing the best qualities of the existing context while mitigating its problems.

Design Collective
Baltimore, MD

Intern Architect, 2000 - 2001

- Participation in site planning, schematic design, design development, construction documents, and construction administration for various student housing projects.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

University of Maryland, College Park

Lecturer, Spring 2001, Spring 2004, Fall 2009, Fall 2016, Spring 2017

- Instructed students in undergraduate and graduate level studios
- Duties included lectures, desk critiques, pin-ups, site visits, grading, student reviews, and faculty meetings.

University of Maryland, College Park

Lecturer/ Teaching Assistant, 1998-2001

- Instructed three sections of students in an undergraduate introduction to architecture course
- Duties included lectures, critiques, pin-ups, site visits, grading, and student reviews.
- Created the curriculum for ARCH 100, a follow-up architecture course for second semester freshman.

EDUCATION

Master of Architecture

University of Maryland, College Park, 2000

- Thesis: A City Museum for Washington, DC: A Discussion of Washington, DC's necessity for a museum which illustrates and explains the story of the city, and explores how this concept manifests itself in its function, site, and form.

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO.19792
EXHIBIT NO.16

Urban Design Certificate
University of Maryland, College Park, 2000

Bachelor of Science in Architecture
University of Maryland, College Park, 1998

EXPERIENCES AND AWARDS

American Institute of Architects Member, 2002- Present

Registered Architect, Washington DC, 2016- Present

Washington DC AIA Christopher Kelley Leadership Development Program, Scholar
2014-2015

Registered Architect, State of Maryland, 2008- Present

Burgundy Crescent Volunteers, 2010- Present

Residential Development and Restoration in Washington, DC, 2010- Present

Remodeling Magazine Design Award
A Victorian Re-imagined, Washington, DC, 2017

Remodeling Magazine Reader's Choice Award
A Victorian Re-imagined, Washington, DC, 2017

Washington Architectural Foundation Architecture in the Schools Program
2003, 2011, 2012, 2013

Guest Critic and Guest Lecturer, University of Maryland, College Park
2001 – 2018

Participation in "Gingertown" Charity Event, 2011, 2012

Clydesdale Cooperative Board of Directors, President, 2004-2009

Baltimore Architectural Foundation Ideas Competition – 3rd Place
"Nodes in Baltimore", 2001

University of Maryland, College Park – Alumni Association Graduate Award, 2000

University of Maryland, College Park – Study Abroad Programs in Italy, Britain, and Scotland
1998-2000