Dear BZA:

I am a neighbor in Georgetown and I support the BZA granting Call Your Mother deli a zoning variance so that they can open their doors to our community and serve their delicious bagels, pastrami sandwiches and latkes! This is exactly the kind of business our village needs. Small. Locally owned. Nationally recognized. Quality ingredients. Owners that give back and care about their staff and their product. As a former Georgetown University student and a current Georgetown resident, I have lamented the loss of local restaurants (Georgetown Bagelry among them) and shops. This is a wonderful opportunity to bring one back!

Thank you very much.
