Dear Chairman Hill and other members of the BZA,

My name is Gail Miller and I am an owner of Unit 3, 1414 15th Street, N.W., the property adjacent to and abutting the applicant in Case # 20258 heard yesterday. I attended the web hearing and registered to testify in opposition. I was even called prior to the lunch break by someone at BZA and told that our case would be next, which it was after lunch. However, neither I nor the owner of Unit 1 in my building were recognized as being present and desiring to offer testimony in opposition. I understand that I need to request permission to offer this testimony. I think that the Board records will indicate that what I represent here is factual and that I should be able to offer my testimony.

I will forward in writing by subsequent email the essence of the testimony that I propose to give. If something more formal is required, please let me know. I would appreciate your advising me of anything further that I might need to do.

Thank you for your consideration,

Gail Miller
