Dear Mr. Moy,

Mr. Hays and I were both contacted by Hugh Green a short time ago. Mr. Legrant is ill today and Mr. Green wishes to continue today's hearing.

The Appellants have no objection.

Cases should be tried fairly and on the merits and so we agree to Mr. Green's request continue today's hearing.

We request that this matter be addressed as early on the docket as possible today so that our witnesses, especially our experts, can be informed.

We will work with Mr. Green and the Board to clear a new date when the parties' witnesses will be available.

Thank you,

Edward Hanlon
