Dear Chairman Hill and BZA Members

I write to express support for the River School relocation to the River Oaks property.

I am a lifelong resident of Washington, DC and currently live in the house I grew up in about a block and a half away from the Buchanan estate. I have seen changes in DC from streetcars to Metro. A neighborhood should be dynamic and vibrant, not static.

River School will enhance the neighborhood. They have sought to preserve some of the unique property features and to incorporate the design of the Buchanan house in the new buildings. The landscaping is wonderful.

It will be a pleasure to walk by 4220 Nebraska and hear the song of children's voices.
