As the former ANC Commissioner (10 years) for the Single Member District including the River School (ANC 3D05) and a resident of a street that intersects MacArthur Boulevard, I feel I have a perspective on some issues resulting from the current matter of right location of the River School.

Traffic and parking have both been issues related to morning drop-off and afternoon pick-up of students. Staff parking on neighborhood streets has resulted in many street having to apply for RPP.

I ask the BZA to accept this letter albeit untimely filed. I regret I had forgotten the date of the public hearing for the application of the River School.
