DeLorean 88 LLC_0615

DeLorean 88 LLC t/a DeLorean has identified property for its medical cannabis retail facility at 1432 Wisconsin Avenue, NW Washington, D.C. 20007. The property, which is zoned as MU-4, is located less than 300 feet from the property line of Hyde Addison Elementary School, located at 3219 O Street, NW Washington, D.C. 20007, however, it meets the exemption in 22 D.C.M.R. § C5200.1. Specifically, 22 D.C.M.R. § C5200.1 states that a proposed medical cannabis facility is exempt from the 300 foot setback, where “the nearest property line of the school...is actually on or occupies ground zoned commercial or industrial according to the official atlases of the Zoning Commission of the District of Columbia.”

The Zoning Report for 3219 O Street, NW, which is attached here, indicates that Hyde Addison Elementary has two zoning designations – MU-4 and R-3/GT. The Office of Surveyor’s survey of the Hyde Addison Elementary plat, also attached here, indicates that the property line which faces Wisconsin Avenue is in an MU-4 zone. This MU-4 designation satisfies the 22 D.C.M.R. § C5200.1 exemption.

TO: John Suero
Chief of Enforcement
THRU: Jason Peru
Supervisory Investigator
FROM: Kevin Puente KP #580
Investigator
SUBJECT: Towne Wine & Liquor

Details: On Wednesday, February 10, 2021, Investigator Puente conducted an investigation regarding Towne Wine & Liquor. Towne Wine & Liquor (Class A Liquor Store) is currently located at 1326 Wisconsin Ave N.W., has applied to move up the street to 1438 Wisconsin Ave N.W. The applicant's proposed address is located within 400 feet of Hyde Addison Elementary School which is currently located at 3219 O Street N.W. Hyde Addison Elementary School is currently zoned Residential and Mix Use according to the District of Columbia Zoning maps. Investigator Puente was tasked with determining whether the nearest property line of Hyde Elementary School to 1438 Wisconsin Avenue, NW is zoned MU-4 or R-20.

Investigator Puente went out to the establishment and measured the distance of Hyde Addison Elementary to Towne Wine & Liquors current location and then from the proposed new location. From the current location at 1326 Wisconsin Avenue N.W. to Addison Elementary school is 371 feet. From the new location at 1438 Wisconsin Avenue N.W. to Addison Elementary School is 381 feet.

Investigator Puente observed that on the east side of the property which abuts commercial buildings is separated by a fence down the entire property line.

APPENDIX
B-3

Investigator Puente conducted checks on the District of Columbia Zoning website, Property quest website and the Department of Transportation (DDOT), and determined that the east side property line runs into the MU-4 Zone. Investigator Puente was able to determine this by the maps that were provided on the websites and that are highlighted that shows the property line for Addison Elementary School starts in Residential and then moves into the Mix-Use Zone and back into the Residential Zone.

Investigator Puente determined that the nearest property line to 1438 Wisconsin Avenue N.W., falls into the Mix-Use Zone.

DATE: February 11, 2021
TO: John Suero
Chief of Enforcement
THRU: Jason Peru
Supervisory Investigator
FROM: Kevin Puente KP #22
Investigator
SUBJECT: Towne Wine & Liquor

Details: On Wednesday, February 10, 2021, Investigator Puente conducted an investigation regarding Towne Wine & Liquor. Towne Wine & Liquor (Class A Liquor Store) is currently located at 1326 Wisconsin Ave N.W., has applied to move up the street to 1438 Wisconsin Ave N.W. The applicant's proposed address is located within 400 feet of Hyde Addison Elementary School which is currently located at 3219 O Street N.W. Hyde Addison Elementary School is currently zoned Residential and Mix Use according to the District of Columbia Zoning maps. Investigator Puente was tasked with determining whether the nearest property line of Hyde Elementary School to 1438 Wisconsin Avenue, NW is zoned MU-4 or R-20.

Investigator Puente went out to the establishment and measured the distance of Hyde Addison Elementary to Towne Wine & Liquors current location and then from the proposed new location. From the current location at 1326 Wisconsin Avenue N.W. to Addison Elementary school is 371 feet. From the new location at 1438 Wisconsin Avenue N.W. to Addison Elementary School is 381 feet.

Investigator Puente observed that on the east side of the property which abuts commercial buildings is separated by a fence down the entire property line.

APPENDIX
B-3

Investigator Puente conducted checks on the District of Columbia Zoning website, Property quest website and the Department of Transportation (DDOT), and determined that the east side property line runs into the MU-4 Zone. Investigator Puente was able to determine this by the maps that were provided on the websites and that are highlighted that shows the property line for Addison Elementary School starts in Residential and then moves into the Mix-Use Zone and back into the Residential Zone.

Investigator Puente determined that the nearest property line to 1438 Wisconsin Avenue N.W., falls into the Mix-Use Zone.

Hello Commissioner Matthews:

Yes, this appears to be a digitization error. The first screenshot below is from the 1966 map, and there is a clear 78' line from the edge of the alley ROW on this square. This measurement is shown on every map up to 2003 (subsequent maps don't show measurements). The pink line on the second screenshot is a 78-foot line we made in GIS to simulate where the line should be, juxtaposed to the red existing zone boundary.

Dear Phil,

We do not have an issue with delaying consideration of your motion. Please note that the Board does not meet on the 17th but meets the following weeks (Board Calendar: https://abca.dc.gov/sites/default/files/dc/sites/abra/publication/attachments/2024%20ABC%20Board%20Meeting%20Schedule\_0.pdf). The matter will still appear on the agenda but we will let the Board know that you intend to file additional materials related to the motion so it will likely merely be continued to a later date and no decision will be made at that time. Presuming you file by the 17th, the Board will likely take up the motion on the 24th or 31st. As a result, I would advise filing additional materials by the 17th or let us know by then if you need additional time. If an appearance is required, notice and instructions will be provided.

Separately, in respect to any conversations you're having with other agencies, note that on our end, based on the information I have, ABCA was informed around or sometime in November 2023 that there was a digitization error in the official zoning map and that the map was updated, which led to Licensing issuing the denial based on the new map. I also wanted to let you know that Investigator Puente is no longer with the agency.

The “Call Your Mother” fight highlights the absurdity of Georgetown’s zoning

J

This article was first published in Georgetown Metropolitan.

Last week, the owners of the popular bagel shop, Call Your Mother, appeared before the Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA) to request a variance to operate their shop at 3428 O Street NW, on the corner of O Street and 35th. While the ANC voted to approve the variance, and the Office of Planning also supported it, a group of neighbors, living adjacent or nearby, as well as the ANC commissioner for the location objected to the variance. While the BZA deferred a final decision on the application to December, it’s worth taking a moment to consider how absolutely absurd it is that zoning makes such approval necessary in the first place.

Zoning regulates the size and use of properties. Each property is assigned a particular zone, which sets forth, among other things, how tall the building can be, how much of the property area it can cover, and (most important for this discussion) what you can do on the property. For most residential zones, the only thing you’re

Board of Zoning Adjustment
Case No. 21107
Exhibit No. 50 M

allowed to do “by right” (i.e. without having to seek additional approval) is to use it as a home. Commercially zoned properties, on the other hand, allow you to do just about any (legal) commercial enterprise on site.

Georgetown is a mix of residential and commercially zoned blocks:

Roughly speaking, the yellow areas are the residentially zoned blocks. For Georgetown that includes R-19 (for blocks with primarily detached homes) and R-20 (blocks primarily full of rowhouses). There are a few more varieties of commercial zones. MU-4 covers most of Wisconsin Ave. and M Street MU-12, 13, and 14 covers south of M Street (this area used to be zoned as “Waterfront”, but that name was changed with the zoning rewrite several years ago).

This map, of course, wasn’t around when Georgetown was being built into what it is today. The first significant zoning laws were adopted in DC in 1920. The laws were largely modeled after New York’s. From the beginning, though, they did pretty much the same thing the modern zoning laws do: regulate the size of buildings and how they can be used.

A map was drawn up in 1921 delineating for the first time what blocks would be commercial and what would be residential. Here is the Georgetown portion of the 1921 use map:

The black colored blocks are the commercial blocks, the light colored blocks the residential. As you can see, obviously M and Wisconsin were zoned for commercial from the start. But this map allowed for a substantial amount of commercial into the residential neighborhood. P Street west of Wisconsin was almost entirely zoned for commercial. 36th Street was as well. And a portion of P Street in east Georgetown (the heart of the historic black Herring Hill neighborhood) was also zoned commercial.

Of course this wasn't a coincidence. It was zoned commercial because it was commercial. The map makers were acknowledging that even though one of the stated goals of adopting the zoning laws was to limit the growth of commercial activity in residential neighborhoods, there already was commercial activity in these parts of residential Georgetown.

This acknowledgment carried forward to the first major refinement of the maps in 1936:

In this map, the black still represents commercial. As you can see, several blocks of P west of Wisconsin were shifted to residential (the bright red was a type of residential zoning). But 36th Street and the eastern edge of P Street remained commercial.

And finally in 1958, the Zoning Commission adopted the map that would not face a major rewrite until 2012:

It's not terribly easy to see (here's an interactive map that is easier to read) but the commercial zones of 36th Street and P Street were scaled back even further. This is essentially the map that we have today (albeit with new names).

There are several things to take away from these maps

Firstly, as mentioned above, they acknowledged that commercial activities took place in the residential streets. But they absolutely did not attempt to reflect all the commercial activity around the neighborhood. Sara's and Scheele's markets, for instance, were open and operating throughout this time. But their blocks were zoned residential. As I've started to document, there were commercial establishments all throughout the neighborhood. By refusing to document them in the maps, the Zoning Commission essentially made them illegal.

While this act no doubt contributed to the conversion of dozens of these shops, doctor's offices, etc. to residential, some carried on by way of a grandfather clause. In short, as long as it was commercial before the act and it stayed open as commercial, it could remain commercial. Without this weakly tailored exception, we wouldn't have Scheele's, Sara's, Stachowski's, Dent Place Market, Saxby's, Georgetown Hairstyling, Bredice Shoe Repair, Down Dog Yoga, and all the other small shops tucked into the neighborhood.

And that brings us back to Call Your Mother. This block of 35th has been largely commercial since well before the zoning laws were adopted. You can see it in the architecture. The building that Call Your Mother would like to use was constructed in the 19th century specifically to be a grocery store, which is how it was used until the 1970s. The building where Saxby's is was a drug store. This was (and is) a commercial strip. Frankly it was an oversight for it to have been not zoned commercial in the first place.

This building is subject to grandfathering, but the grandfathering is pretty flimsy and only permits that particular non-conforming use to continue. In this case, that would mean Call Your Mother could use the grandfathering to sell bagels, but need a variance to toast them first because that is considered “prepared food” and beyond the scope of what was being done before. This illustrates how even the grandfathering is designed to encourage the commercial use to eventually go away. A true grandfather clause would treat the property as if it were zoned commercial, which, again, is what should have been done in the first place.

These old corner markets and barber shops made Georgetown what it is. It was a rejection of the neighborhood’s history to legislate them out of existence.

This is not even getting into the gigantic absurdity of how the zoning laws made Georgetown University—an institution well over 100 years old when the first zoning laws were being adopted—also technically illegal. It was one thing back in 1920 when they had only a handful of zones, but now there are dozens. For the Zoning Commission to keep GU zoned residential in 2012 instead of simply coming up with a new zone for universities shows that the system is all about using arbitrary and absurd fictions to control behavior.

How much do Georgetowners really care about history?

If anything, the zoning laws should have made it more difficult to convert old commercial spaces to residential rather than the opposite. Having more shops in the neighborhood would be good thing! It would enhance the livability of the neighborhood and reduce unnecessary driving. Further, the reduced rents these spaces typically demand make neighborhood-serving retail more feasible than it is on high rent streets like M or Wisconsin.

And yet at the BZA hearing, a witness testifying against Call Your Mother spoke favorably of the conversion of old commercial spaces to residential and suggested that it would be better if the first floor of the property were turned into a living room instead of a corner shop. For all the talk of how much Georgetowners love history and want to preserve it, that love is often incredibly skin deep. As soon as preserving something genuinely historic, like a corner commercial building, impinges on parking or a desire not to have people around, the love of history is cast aside.

It’s too late for all those former spots. And it’s probably unrealistic to expect the Zoning Commission to redraw the maps to properly reflect the large numbers of historic commercial buildings throughout the neighborhood. So barring all that, we can only ask that the BZA defend the neighborhood’s history and allow Call Your Mother to open.

There’s no doubt that these neighbors feel genuine anxiety over the impact the store might have. But living in Georgetown is about trade-offs. I’ve noticed that it’s been more difficult to park on his block since Via Umbria and Zannchi opened around the corner. Sure it’s a bit annoying when looking for a spot, but it also means that a fabulous Italian market and Korean restaurant is thriving steps from my house.

There are lots of places in the world with pretty homes and absolutely zero street life. But Georgetown doesn’t and shouldn’t have to be one of them.

DECLARATION OF SANJEEV PREET

I, Sanjeev Preet, declare, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that:

1. I am over twenty-one (21) years of age, of sound mind, and capable of making this Declaration. All the facts and statements contained herein are within my personal knowledge and are, in all things, true and correct.
2. I am submitting this declaration in support of DeLorean 88 LLC's ("DeLorean") Supplemental Memorandum.
3. I am a twenty-percent member of DeLorean.
4. I am a general partner of The Preet Group Family Limited Partnership (the "PGFLP"). PGFLP acquired 1432 Wisconsin Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20007 (the "Property") in 2000.
5. Until 2007, the Property operated as a clothing store.
6. From 2008 until 2019, the Property operated as jewelry store.
7. Beginning in August 2019, the Property operated under D.C.'s Initiative 71.
8. In or around September 2023, DeLorean entered into a commercial lease agreement with PGFLP at the Property.

APPENDIX
M

9. During the week of October 16, 2023, I met with Licensing Manager Sean Gordy of the Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Administration (“ABCA”) regarding location approval of the Property for DeLorean to obtain a Medical Cannabis Business License (the “License”). Mr. Gordy confirmed that the Property would be able to obtain a License because the Hyde-Addison Elementary School (the “School”), located at 3219 O Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20007 (the “O Street Address”) and 3246 P Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20007 (the “P Street Address”), was classified as MU-4 and R-3/GT zoning and DeLorean would be able to obtain the License at the Property.
10. The entrance to the School is located at the O Street Address on Square 1244 Lot 0854 (the “School Lot”). See Exhibit A.
11. During the week of October 23, 2023, I met again with Mr. Gordy to request written confirmation of his verbal assurance DeLorean would receive a License. Mr. Gordy called Jonathon Berman, Assistant General Counsel to ABCA, who confirmed the School was located in MU-4 and R-3/GT and DeLorean would be able to obtain the License at the Property.
12. On October 25, 2023, I emailed Mr. Gordy seeking written confirmation DeLorean would be granted a License if they applied.
13. On October 26, 2023, I emailed Mr. Gordy again seeking written confirmation DeLorean would be granted a License if they applied.
14. On October 26, 2023, Mr. Gordy forwarded Mr. Berman’s response regarding my request. See Exhibit B.
15. On October 31, 2023, I went to the D.C. Department of Buildings (“DoB”) to speak with a Zoning Administrator. I spoke with Mary Morgan of DoB, a customer service representative, who went to D.C. PropertyQuest to confirm the zoning of the School.

Ms. Morgan confirmed the School was zoned as MU-4 and R-3/GT. See Exhibit C.

16. On November 1, 2023, DeLorean submitted their License application.

17. On November 1, 2023, I called ANC2E03 Commissioner Paul Maysak to advise him

DeLorean applied for a License at the Property. Later that day, I emailed Mr. Maysak

Mr. Gordy's October 26, 2023, email that the Property had been approved.

18. In or around November 14, 2023, I called Mr. Gordy regarding DeLorean's License.

Mr. Gordy advised me that ANC Commissioners contacted ABCA regarding the zoning of the School.

19. On November 15, 2023, I learned that the School's zoning classification had been changed from MU-4 and R-3/GT to R-3/GT. When I searched the School's listed address on D.C. PropertyQuest the address could not be found. See Exhibit D.

20. On or about November 27, 2023, ABCA advised DeLorean that the License application was deemed complete.

21. On December 13, 2023, I received a rejection letter from ABCA for DeLorean's

License due to the Property's proximity to the School. See Exhibit E.

22. On December 27, 2023, DeLorean filed its Notice of Appeal and Request for Reconsideration. See Exhibit F.

23. On January 9, 2024, I met with Director of the D.C. Office of Zoning, Sara Bardin.

Ms. Bardin informed me of a 78-foot distance measured from the alley on P Street.

She showed me a 1958 map but did not show me any more current maps. Ms. Bardin told me she would reconsider reinstating the MU-4 zoning classification of the School Lot if the 78-foot distance from the corner of the alley encroached on the School Lot.

24. On January 9, and January 17, 2024, I measured 78-feet from the corner of the alley West on P Street NW multiple times and also measured 77-feet from the corner of the alley west. See Exhibit G. By comparing the D.C. Office of Zoning 3D Zoning Map, it seems clear that the MU-4 zoning line encroaches on the School Lot.
