Hi Robert,

Thanks for reaching out. We will support our ANC 1A colleagues on whatever decision they prefer since 3500 New Hampshire Ave NW is in ANC 1A07. If they do not oppose to the motion, we have no problem either. Thank you.

Good afternoon, Chairperson Footer, et al,

This is regarding the Motion for Postponement filed by the applicant in the matter of BZA Application No. 21169 of Benjamin J. Levy.

Should ANC 1E wish to consent to the applicant's Motion, a response to the email (and the parties) below from either Vice-Chairperson Brown or yourself, cc'ing: bzasubmissions@dc.gov , will suffice as adequate for consent.

Should ANC 1E consent, it would be most helpful to the Board of Zoning Adjustment if that response can be made by close of business tomorrow, October 18, 2024.

If the Office of Zoning may be of any assistance to ANC 1E in this matter, please let me know.

Respectfully,

Robert I. Reid

Good morning,

Due to zoning requirements design changes were made to 3500 New Hampshire Ave NW. These changes were not completed in time to allow the ANC an adequate review period. The motion is to push the hearing to the next available date.

Attached is the motion form 150. We are looking for consent from the ANC1A and ANC1E for this request.
