Good Afternoon,

This letter is in reference to application #21287. Tsunami Hair studio and its CEO Latoya J Liles Walker is a bright light to Ward 7. They represent what hard work, family values, a consistent work etiquette and belief in oneself is able to accomplish. During the 11 years Tsunami has brought so much to the community and as a business in Ward 7 the name is known throughout the Cosmetology world in the DMV area (with numerous awards, acknowledgements and accolades).

Since arriving in Ward 7 Tsunami has been a part of and has headed multiple events (Feeding the homeless during the thanksgiving holiday, DC night out, Cat Walk @ H st Day, Open street DC, A total prom makeover for a student from Paul High School diagnosis with Cancer, Little ladies pamper party, yearly Customer Appreciation Day and annual training programs) just to name a few outside events.

Tsunami CEO/ her staff also recognize and celebrate each other monthly (birthdays, anniversaries, years of service, outside accolades and other accomplishments).

Thank you for your attention to application No 21287. Tsunami Hair Studio will use it to continue to operate in excellence within the community, be that colorful beacon in Ward 7 and beyond the District of Columbia.

Respectfully,

Ms. Doreen
