Dear Board,

My mother and I own and live at 1142 44th Place SE. We have lived here since 2020 and interacted with our neighbors regularly about our home. We've gotten advice on contractors for our project, talked about our desires for expansion and talked about neighbors experiences with permitting. Our abutting neighbors are aware of our desires to expand our home and have shared no objections and have been supportive. We've also spoken to neighbors across the street and the alley and they've been supportive as well.

We've found our neighbors to be generally hesitant to put things in writing.

We have found them to not be very concerned about our addition because it's in our back yard and won't impede on their privacy or enjoyment of their yards.

Thank you and with respect,

Zakiya Jackson
