

630 Randolph Street NW 20011-Washington DC

Propose renovation on the internal parts of the building and extension of the rear up to 27ft.

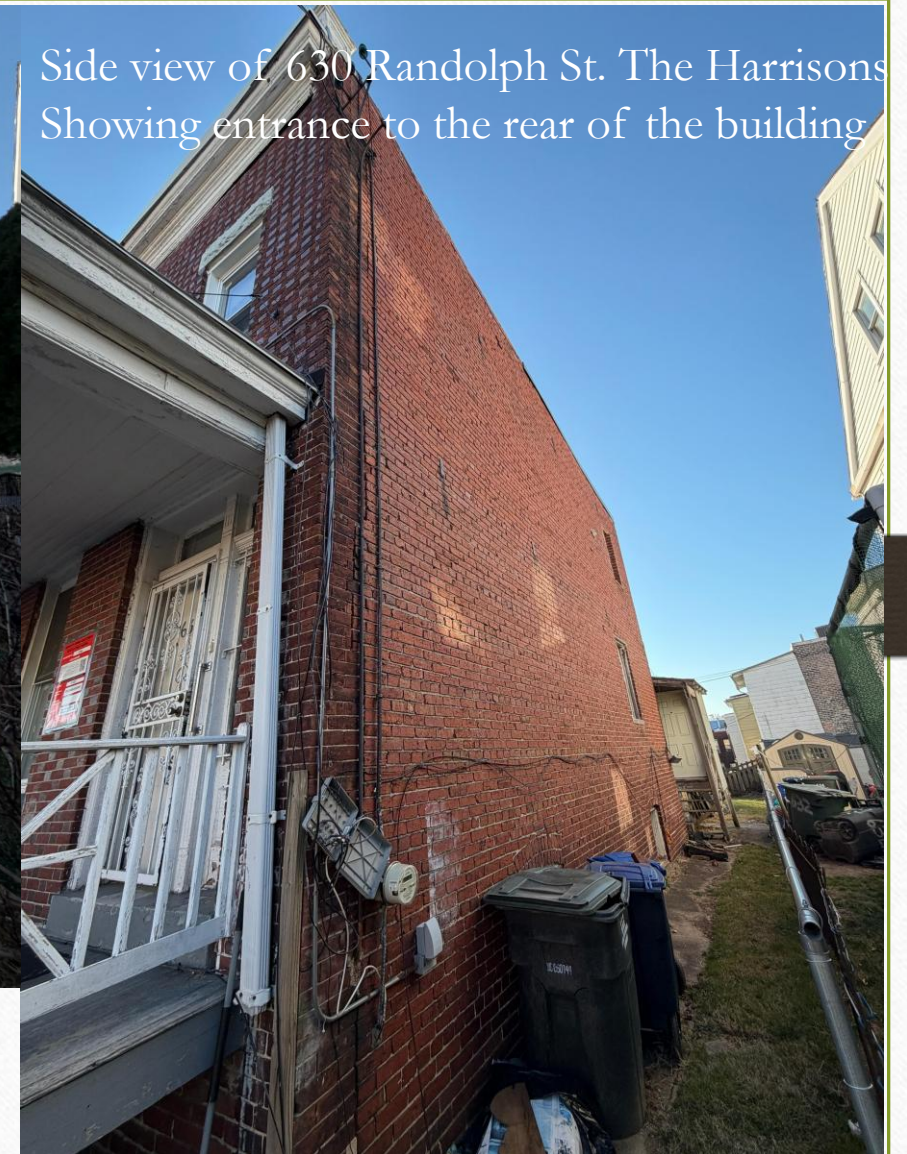

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO. 21384
EXHIBIT NO. 33

Street view of 630 Randolph street NW and the neighbors

Front View with side walks of 630 and 628 Randolph St

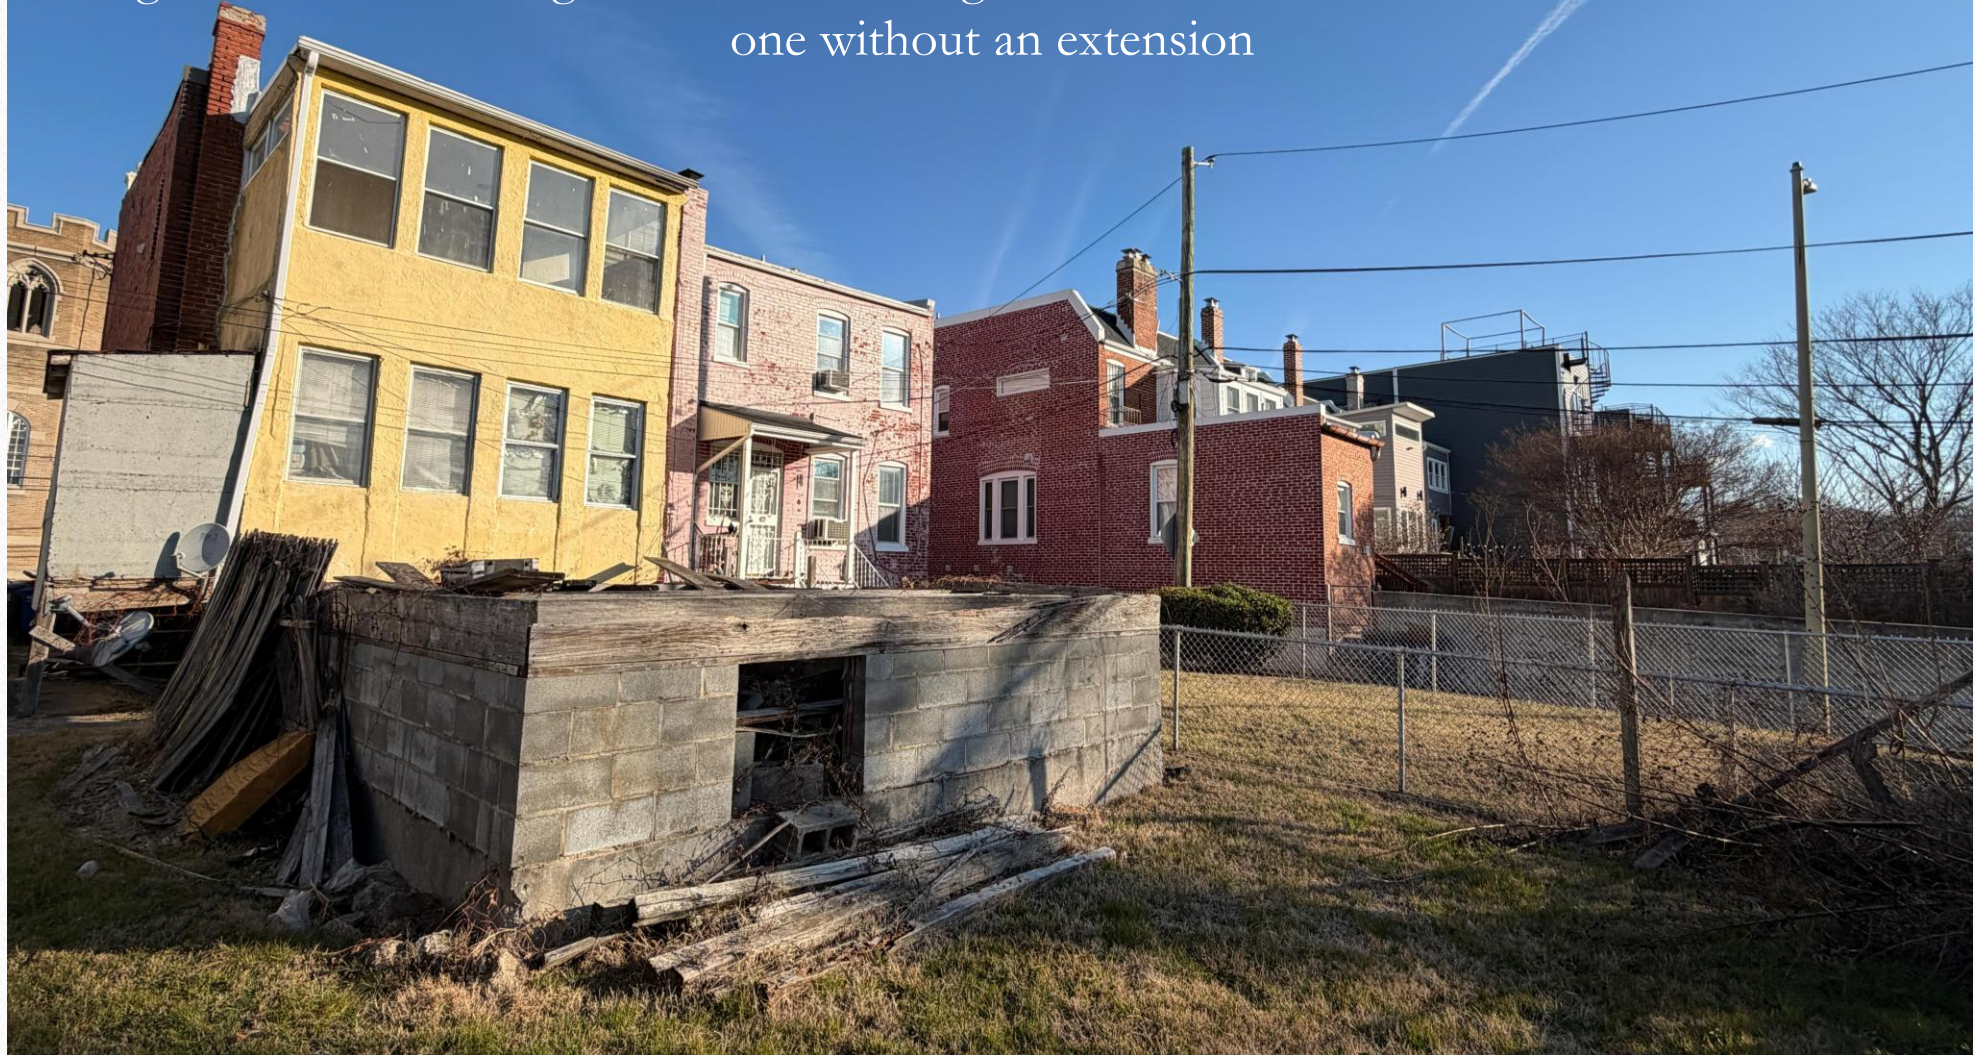

Side view of 630 Randolph St. The Harrisons
Showing entrance to the rear of the building

Alley View of 628 Randolph St. (Ms Williams)

Rear view of 630 and the neighbors with existing extensions- The proposed extension will be in alignment with the length of the other neighbors with extension. Ms. William home is the one without an extension

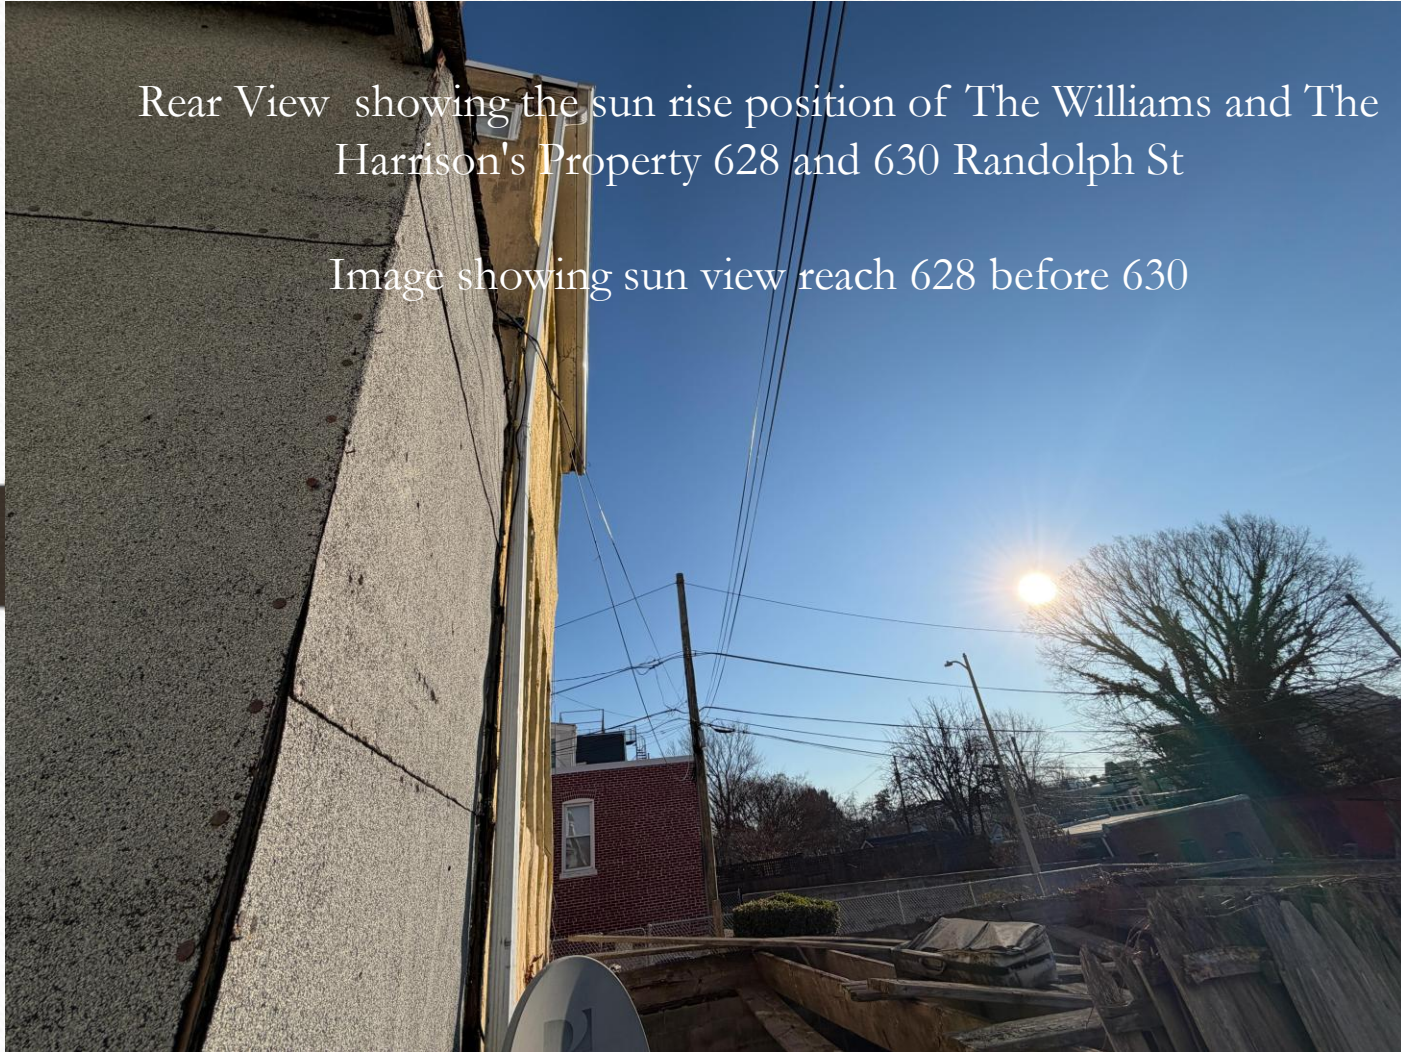

Close Rear View of Both Properties

Rear View showing the sun rise position of The Williams and The Harrison's Property 628 and 630 Randolph St

Image showing sun view reach 628 before 630

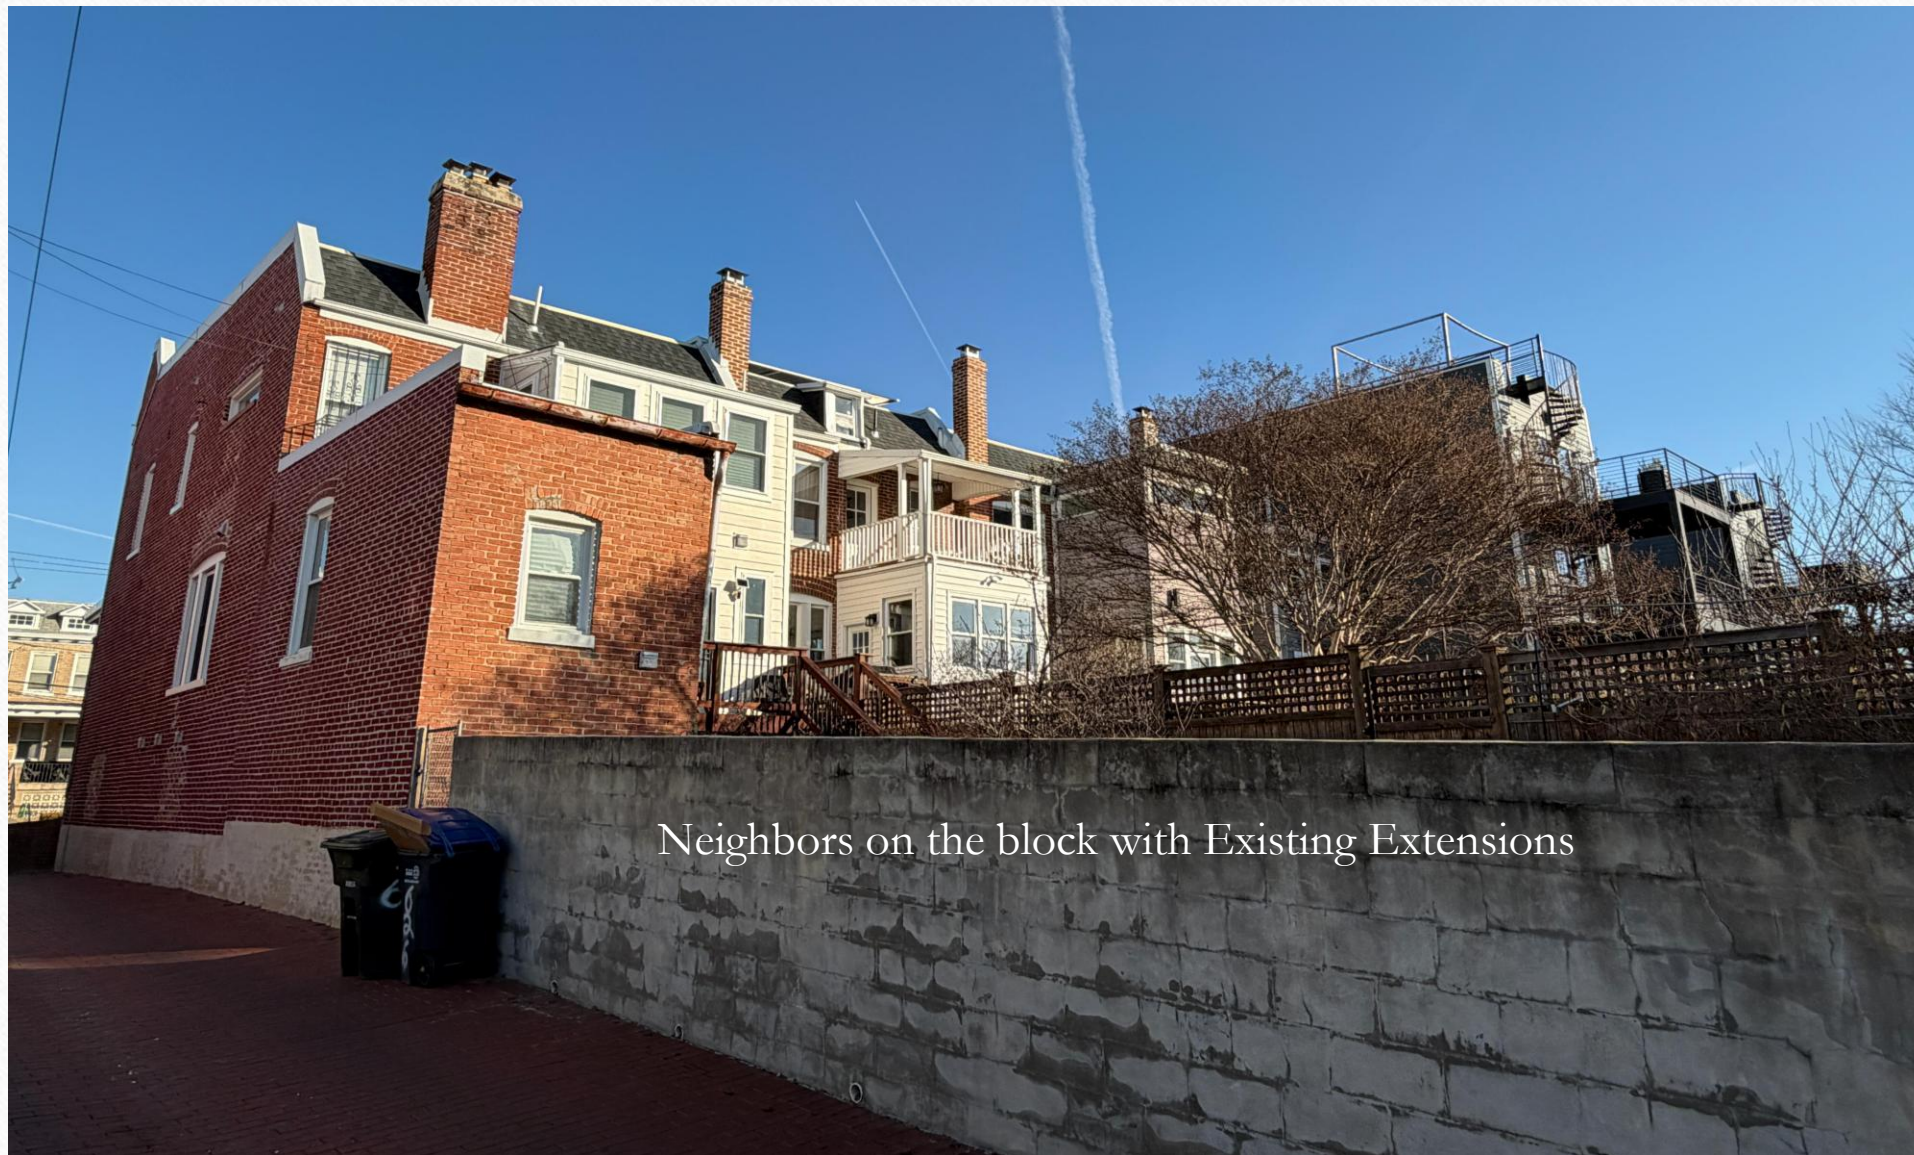

Rear view of 630 Randolph Street NW
(Left)

Rear view of Neighbors at 626 Randolph and 618 Randolph with exiting length of extension similar to what is being proposed for 630 Randolph
(Right)

Neighbors on the block with Existing Extensions

407 Randolph St Rear View

456 Randolph St. Rear View

417 and 416 Randolph St. Building with Massive Extension

423 Randolph St with extension behind

Rear Extension 417
& 416 Randolph St

Rear Extension from
Randolph St

456 Randolph St. Side View with extension

504 Randolph St. Rear

504 Randolph St. Front

Rear Extension from Quincy St
covering the entire yard

Rear Extension from Quincy St.

SPEED LIMIT
25

3809 7th St with rear Extension

Double Extension at Quincy St. No yard space left

Another Extension from 407 Randolph
St

Extension at 407 Randolph St

Extension at 413 Randolph St side view

Extension at Quincy St

Other rear view from the alley of properties in 7th St

Extension at 528 Randolph St

Massive Extension in Randolph St

