I hereby retract my prior support for the above application evidenced by the support document the applicant brought to me. The applicant asked me to sign the relevant support document in my driveway as I had just delivered my wife from assisted living and was unloading her medical equipment. The applicant did not give an adequate description of the project. In response to my question about whether it was supported by the neighbors, she failed to mention the evident opposition to the project. I had no time to discuss it further as I had to attend to my wife. Having now spoken to the neighbors and viewed the proposed plans for the project I do not support it.

Thank you.
