

I am writing to express my support for the proposed plans at 1413 28th Street NW, submitted by the Mady family.

As a neighbor and life-long resident of Georgetown, born and raised in my home at 1407 28th Street NW, I have lived on this block since 1953 (for 72 years). I've personally seen generations of families come and go - and no one has lived on this block longer than I have.

I believe the proposed improvements are in keeping with the architectural character of our block. The design appears to scale appropriately with the existing homes along 28th Street and reflects a thoughtful approach to restoration and modest expansion.

The Mady family has made every effort to communicate transparently and respectfully with the neighborhood. Their plans respond to serious structural damage caused by a fallen tree, and their commitment to restoring the home while honoring the surrounding context is clear.

I fully endorse their proposal and hope it is approved without delay.

Sincerely,

Mildred Burnett

I'm writing in support of the proposed plans for 1413 28th Street NW, submitted by the Mady family.

As the next-door neighbors at 1417 28th Street NW, we've had the opportunity to review their design and speak with them directly about their goals. We appreciate their thoughtful approach and clear communication throughout the process.

When we purchased our own home, it already included a second-floor addition that had been completed prior to our arrival. While we value the mission of the Georgetown Historic District to preserve architectural integrity, we also recognize that the neighborhood has evolved thoughtfully over time. Our own home is a testament to that - demonstrating that sensitive, well-scaled updates can coexist with the historic fabric of the community.

We believe the Mady family's plans strike that same balance. Their proposal responds to serious structural damage caused by a fallen tree and offers a modest improvement that remains respectful of the block's overall character and proportions. It's a clear effort to restore and responsibly update a home that has long been part of the community.

We fully support their application and hope it receives a favorable review.

Sincerely,

Diane & Tim Naughton

I'm writing to express my full support for the proposed plans at 1413 28th Street NW, submitted by the Mady family.

As both a neighbor and a local business owner on the block, I've had the pleasure of getting to know the Madys over the years and have always appreciated the care, energy, and warmth they bring to the neighborhood. They've created a welcoming atmosphere around their home, especially near the steps to Poplar Street - which has become a favorite spot for locals and visitors alike to sit, enjoy a bite, and take in the charm of the area. I often see families, kids, and even some of my customers stopping there to relax.

Having reviewed their proposed plans, the design feels like a natural continuation of the surrounding homes -neither overwhelming nor out of place. Their intent to make necessary improvements while preserving the surrounding context is clear, and their presence continues to add value to our neighborhood.

I fully support their application and their efforts to restore and improve the property for their growing family.

Sincerely,

I'm writing to support the Mady family's renovation plans for 1413 28th Street NW.

As a Georgetown resident for the past 18 years and a neighbor on Poplar Street, I've had the pleasure of seeing the Madys move in and immediately start contributing to the warmth and vitality of our little corner of Georgetown. They've maintained and enhanced their property with care and attention to neighborhood character.

They are thoughtful neighbors determined to remain in Georgetown and raise their kids here, a significant challenge when space is so hard to come by and as other families leave the neighborhood for the suburbs and other parts of DC

After reviewing the proposed plans, I believe the design is respectful of the neighborhood's character and addresses their growing family's needs and the damage of a summer storm in a reasonable and appropriate way. I support their efforts to restore and improve their home and hope their application is approved.

Sincerely,

Re: Letter of SUPPORT for Neighbor's Plans at 1413 28th St., NW

A quick letter to support my neighbor's proposed plans for repair, renovation, and expansion at 1413 28th Street NW.

For years now, these neighbors have repaired, renovated, and vastly improved their house and property, not only as they have lived there, but while starting a family, and growing a family.

Last summer during one of those fast-moving summer thunderstorms, a HUGE tree fell on their house (and viral pics landed on the Washington Post). Damage was substantial. Repairs have not been straightforward due to the age of the house and the long history of uneven maintenance from previous owners.

So they find themselves at a crossroads: fix the house as-is... or... see this as an opportunity to "get it right this time" and rebuild and expand to fit their family. They have shared their plans and I happily support them.

Thank You
