District of Columbia
CASE NO. 21498
EXHIBIT NO. 27

CONCLUSIONS

Pursuant to Subtitle Y § 604.3, the order of the Board may be in summary form where granting an application when there was no party in opposition. As a summary order, it does not constitute binding legal precedent on the Board and shall not be considered by the Board in evaluating future applications.

Based upon the record before the Board, and having given great weight to the appropriate reports and recommendations filed in this case, the Board concludes that the Applicant has met the burden of proof that the requested variance relief can be granted because:

- There exists an exceptional or extraordinary situation or condition related to the property;
- The exceptional condition creates a practical difficulty, in the case of an area variance, or an undue hardship, in the case of a use variance, in complying with the Zoning Regulations;
- The relief can be granted without substantial detriment to the public good; and
- The relief can be granted without substantially impairing the intent, purpose, and integrity of the zone plan as embodied in the Zoning Regulations and Map.

DECISION

Based on the case record and the testimony at the hearing, the Board concludes that the applicant has satisfied the burden of proof for the requested relief:

- Area Variance from the maximum height and number of stories requirements of Subtitle F § 203.2, pursuant to Subtitle X § 1002 (3 stories maximum permitted; 3 stories existing; 4 stories proposed)

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the application is GRANTED consistent with the plans shown in Exhibit 3 of the record, as required under Subtitle Y §§ 604.9 and 604.10.
