Hi Matt,
Looks like they'll tell us rather than the other way around!

Hi Carolynn,

Have you applied for a special exception (variance) with the DC Office of Zoning's Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA)? Here's the link: <https://dcoz.dc.gov/page/special-exception>.

Once you have filed the application and completed the paperwork, BZA will ask us to weigh in and provide our advice. During our review of your application, we will invite you to give a brief presentation at one of our public meetings.

Let me know where you are in this process.

Connie

Hi Ms. Chang,
My name is Carolynn Race and my partner, Yi-Ru Chen, and I are working with a contractor to build a screened porch on our house. Per the contractor's guidance, he's advised that we need to schedule a hearing at our local ANC on a variance to the building code.

Would you please advise as to how to go about scheduling? We're free June 14 or June 28 if slots are available.

Board of Zoning Adjustment

Would you please advise as to how to go about contacting them? There are some other online lists available at other meetings but would welcome your guidance.

Thank you,
