

Existing and Intended Uses

Applicants currently use the property as a single family dwelling and their primary residence.

After the proposed project, Applicants intend to continue using the property as a single family dwelling and their primary residence.