

Lewis J Goetz FAIA, FIIDA

Principal | Managing Director Washington, DC

Lewis J. Goetz, FAIA, FIIDA is an award winning architect whose more than 45 years of work in architecture, interiors, and planning, has significantly impacted the architectural design profession. His innovative and forward thinking designs and strategies are in a diverse portfolio of private and public sector projects.

Mr. Goetz is currently Principal | Managing Director – Washington, DC for Baskervill, Virginia’s oldest and one of its largest architectural and engineering firms. Mr. Goetz is working with a talented group of architects, interior designers, and engineers in the development of design excellence projects in the areas of corporate commercial, hospitality, and healthcare.

For over 32 years Mr. Goetz was Founder, President, and CEO of Group Goetz Architects, the internationally recognized and award winning architectural firm he founded in Washington, DC. His vision, and design approach lead the firm to be a national leader in the architectural profession.

His work has won numerous local and national awards including two National AIA Honor Awards. Mr. Goetz is known for his strategic thinking on architecture, interiors, and workplace design and has spoken publicly in a number of forums, including IFMA World Workplace, IIDA, NEOCON and the AIA regarding organizational, technical and aesthetic issues.

Mr. Goetz is one of only a few individuals that are a Fellow in both the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and International Interior Design Association (IIDA). He served as President of IIDA International (2003-2004), Chair of the IIDA Foundation (2004-2005), IIDA International Board of Directors (2000-2006), and Chair of the IIDA College of Fellows (2007-2011). He is a former member of the Board of Directors for the DC Chapter of the AIA and is has been Chair and Co-Chair of the Design Excellence Committee since 2013. Mr. Goetz is a National GSA Peer Reviewer, a member of Lambda Alpha International, and the prestigious Cosmos Club.

Mr. Goetz has previously represented clients before the US Commission of Fine Arts, DC Board of Zoning Adjustment, and the DC Historic Preservation Review Board.