Propagation map of existing sites only without the proposed Rhode Island site (MidBand)

A map of Washington, D.C. with numerous black circles representing data points. A red star marks the location of Rhode Island, situated near the intersection of 15th St NW and 1st St NW. The map includes labels for various streets such as Taylor St NE, Michigan Ave NE, and Independence Ave SE, as well as landmarks like the National Arboretum and Mt Rainier. Highway shields for 1, 50, and 295 are visible.
