

02-17

To Whom It May Concern:

While I am currently a resident of Montgomery County Maryland, I was a 10 year resident of the District of Columbia. I have had at least one child enrolled at the Chevy Chase Plaza Children's Center since 1997 and expect to continue until mid 2004. Having spent several years in the Friendship Heights neighborhood and being a continued consumer of the shops, parks, amenities (including the day care facility), and restaurants, I believe my support of this project remains valid. I believe the Stonebridge proposal is a good one, it includes many needed assets, and it has remained responsive to the community's concerns.

It is my pleasure to write in support of this project. Thank you for your consideration of my letter.

Thank you,

Terri L. Tanielian
