Memorandum

TO: Andrew Altman, Director
Office of Planning

FROM: Kenneth Laden, Associate Director
Transportation Policy and Planning Administration

DATE: MAY 1 2003

SUBJECT: Zoning Commission No. 03-07

The Department of Transportation (DDOT) has reviewed the request by the Trustees for Harvard University for special exception approval to permit the interim use of property in an R-1-B district located at 3232-3240 R Street, NW, in Square 1280. The subject property is located on the south side of the 3200 block of R Street, NW, mid block between Wisconsin Avenue to the west and 32nd Street to the east.

The Trustees seek to use some buildings on the property as administrative office space for approximately 18 staff that will be displaced from their existing space on the campus during renovation and new construction being undertaken pursuant to the 2000 BZA approval. The applicant proposes using the property for no longer than five years while renovation and construction of the campus proceeds

The Department notes that the Dumbarton Oaks campus is located within one-half block from the subject property. The displaced staff will continue to park in their current spaces and walk to the new location. Accordingly, there will be little or no vehicular traffic generation resulting from the proposal.

From a transportation standpoint, the proposed interim use will not cause adverse traffic and parking impacts on the neighboring residential area.
