WILLIAM M. HARVEY
Mid-City Legacy, LLC

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1999- Present

Mid-City Legacy, LLC - Chief Executive Officer. Responsible for directing operations of company, implementing board policy and coordinating operations of subsidiary and affiliate companies.

1993-1999

Silverstein and Mullens, P.L.L.C. - Member; specialized in commercial transactions, joint ventures, and financing, acquisition and sale of small to mid-sized businesses. Typical components included structuring and negotiating acquisitions, equity placements and financing for a broad range of companies, including both real estate and operating companies, services to operating companies also included providing operating and strategic advice.

1991-1993

Cooter & Gell – Partner. Practice included a broad range of high-volume commercial litigation, structuring, negotiating and implementing workouts of troubled loans, especially in the real estate industry. Workouts were accomplished both through negotiation and use of the bankruptcy courts.

1987-1991

Donatelli & Klein. Inc. - Sr. Vice President and General Counsel. Acted as COO of privately-held company with substantial holdings of real estate and undeveloped land, television stations and furniture manufacturer, duties included supervision and coordination of outside counsel and other professionals and investor relations. Duties included negotiation of acquisitions dispositions and financing, general supervision of operations. Served on the Board of directors of parent company and each subsidiary. Coordinated investor reporting and relations. During his tenure at Donatelli & Klein, Mr. Harvey oversaw the acquisition and development of over 1 million square feet of industrial space and land development for industrial, warehouse and single family use. Mr. Harvey also oversaw asset management of a varied real estate portfolio of over $400 million and several operating businesses.

ZONING COMMISSION
District of Columbia
Case No. 03-12
Exhibit No. 37

ZONING COMMISSION
District of Columbia
CASE NO.03-12
EXHIBIT NO.37

1977-1987

David Hagner & Harvey and predecessor firms – Partner. Specialized in commercial real estate transactions, real estate syndication's, construction lending, commercial development and joint ventures. Mr. Harvey represented both lenders and borrowers for construction, permanent and mini-perm loans for real estate properties. Substantial time was devoted to acquisitions syndication and financing of multifamily residential properties and construction bidding for large-scale commercial real estate projects. Also designed special industry lender programs for local bank clients.

1974-1977

Melrod Redman & Gartlan - Associate; practice concentrated in commercial real estate and commercial and real estate lending

1973-1974

Schwartz, Arnoff & David - Associate

EDUCATION

B.S. in I.E. - Lehigh University (with honors), 1967

M.Eng. (Ind.) - Cornell University, 1968

J.D. - Georgetown University Law Center, 1973 (Executive Board, Georgetown University Law Journal)

MEMBERSHIPS

Maryland and District of Columbia

Maryland State Bar Association; American Bar Association; American College of Real Estate Lawyers