

RESUME

Robert T. Jeter, P.E.
Kimley-Horn and Associates, Inc.
13221 Woodland Park Road, Suite 400
Herndon, VA 20171

Civil Engineer – Land Development Senior Project Manager

Education: Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering w/ honors,
Arizona State University

Registration: Registered Professional Engineer in Virginia,
Maryland, the District of Columbia, Delaware, and Arizona.

Professional Organizations: American Society of Civil Engineers
Chi Epsilon Engineering Honor Society

Professional Experience: Senior Project Manager at Kimley-Horn and Associates, Inc.
since May 1997.

- Provides engineering design and project management for a wide range of private development and public infrastructure clients.
- Provides due diligence, entitlement, and engineering consulting services for national commercial/retail clients.
- Provides engineering analysis for a wide range of storm drain design, hydrologic modeling, and water quality modeling.

Relevant Project Experience: Knollwood Retirement Home, Washington, DC — Project Engineer for building expansion.
Pentagon Library and Conference Center, Arlington County, VA — Project Engineer. Kimley-Horn is providing leadership in energy and environmental design (LEED), site civil engineering, and stormwater pollution prevention.
City of Charlotte, Sheffield-Tarrington Stormwater / Edwards Branch Management and Stream Restoration Projects, Charlotte, NC – Project Engineer for hydrologic and hydraulic design of watershed improvements.
Rhode Island Avenue Retail Site, Washington, DC — Project Engineer for Due Diligence.
Retail Site, Crofton, MD — Project manager for entitlement and design of site and highway civil engineering improvements including wetlands and floodplain mitigation.