Condition C-4: Foggy Bottom Campus Student Population: Fall 2025

Condition:

For the duration of this Plan, Foggy Bottom student headcount shall not exceed 20,000 students, and Foggy Bottom student full-time equivalent shall not exceed 16,553.

a. For the purposes of these Conditions,

i. “Foggy Bottom student headcount” shall be defined as the number of GW students in the “Foggy Bottom/Mount Vernon Campus Total Student Body”, minus: study abroad students, continuous enrollment students, students that reside at the Mount Vernon Campus, students that take all of their courses at the Mount Vernon Campus, and Foggy Bottom faculty and staff accounted for pursuant to Condition C-5 herein who are also enrolled in one or more courses at the Foggy Bottom campus. Notwithstanding the foregoing, students who reside in on-campus beds on the Foggy Bottom Campus shall each be counted toward the Foggy Bottom student headcount.

Note that students taking all of their courses at the Corcoran are not specifically deducted from this number as they are not included in the “Foggy Bottom/Mount Vernon Campus Total Student Body” by virtue of their courses not being located on the Foggy Bottom or Mount Vernon campuses.¹

ii. “Foggy Bottom student full-time equivalent” shall be determined by assigning a fraction to part-time students included in the Foggy Bottom student headcount number based on the number of credits they are taking compared to a full-time course load and adding the number of full-time students. Currently, the full-time course load for undergraduates is 12 credits, and the full-time course load for graduate and professional students is 9 credits. Formulas for determining full-time equivalents may change over the term of the proposed Foggy Bottom Campus Plan depending on program requirements or the restructuring of the academic calendar.

b. An audit of the Foggy Bottom student headcount and Foggy Bottom student full-time equivalent reported pursuant to Condition C-15 herein shall be conducted in a manner and by a firm previously approved by the Zoning Administrator and reported to the Advisory Committee. The audit shall be completed by January 10 of the year following each report submitted pursuant to Condition C-15 herein.

c. Compliance with this condition shall be based upon the data reported for the most recent semester in either the Foggy Bottom Campus Plan Compliance Report required in Condition C-15 or in the Interim Foggy Bottom Campus Plan Compliance Report required by Condition C-16.

GW Response:

	Spring 2025 ¹	Fall 2025 ²
Foggy Bottom Student Headcount	16,480	17,663
Foggy Bottom Student Full-Time Equivalent (FTE)	14,781	16,345

Note 2 – Data as of the GW census date, October 4, 2025.

Condition C-5: Foggy Bottom Campus Faculty & Staff Population

Condition:

For the duration of this Plan, the Foggy Bottom faculty and staff population shall not exceed a total of 12,529 on a headcount basis, and 10,550 on a full-time equivalent basis.

- a. For the purposes of these Conditions,
 - i. “Foggy Bottom faculty and staff headcount” shall include: regular full-time faculty and staff; regular part-time faculty and staff; wage account staff that are not Foggy Bottom students accounted for pursuant to Condition C-4; temporary part-time faculty (excluding part-time clinical faculty who are not paid employees of the University); affiliated faculty employed by the Medical Faculty Associates; and visiting instructional and research faculty. For the purposes of these Conditions, Foggy Bottom faculty and staff shall not include faculty and staff whose primary office locations are not on the Foggy Bottom campus; employees of non-GW owned or controlled entities which are located on the Foggy Bottom campus; and contractors that provide ancillary campus-related service functions who are not employees of the University.
 - ii. “Foggy Bottom faculty and staff full-time equivalent” shall be determined by assigning a fraction to part-time employees included in the Foggy Bottom faculty and staff headcount number based generally on the number of hours worked as compared to the standard full-time 40-hour work week.
- b. Compliance with this condition shall be based upon the data reported for the most recent semester in either the Foggy Bottom Campus Plan Compliance Report required in Condition C-15 or in the Interim Foggy Bottom Campus Plan Compliance Report required by Condition C-16, whichever is the most current.

GW Response:

	Spring 2025 ¹	Fall 2025 ²
Foggy Bottom Faculty & Staff Headcount	6,858	6,489
Foggy Bottom Faculty & Staff Full-Time Equivalent (FTE)	5,436	5,276

For the methodology for calculation of Foggy Bottom campus faculty and staff populations, see Attachment B.

Note 1 – Data as of the GW census date, February 22, 2025.
 Note 2 – Data as of the GW census date, October 4, 2025.

Condition C-6 and Condition 15: On-Campus Undergraduate Student Housing

Condition:

For the duration of the Plan, the University shall make available on-campus beds for full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate students equivalent to 70% of the full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate student population up to an enrollment of 8,000, plus one bed per full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate student over 8,000. Compliance with this condition shall be based upon the data reported for the most recent semester in either the Foggy Bottom Campus Plan Compliance Report required in Condition C-15 or in the Interim Foggy Bottom Campus Plan Compliance Report required by Condition C-16, whichever is the most current.

- a. For the purposes of this Condition,
 - i. “full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate students” shall be defined as follows:
 - A. Until the fall 2010 semester or until the completion and occupancy of the next University residence hall project proposed in accordance with the Foggy Bottom or Mount Vernon Campus Plans, whichever event first occurs, the term shall mean the number of students in the “Foggy Bottom/Mount Vernon Campus Total Student Body”¹ minus graduate students, first professionals (JDs and MDs), undergraduates taking fewer than 12 credit hours at the Foggy Bottom campus, non-degree students, full-time undergraduate study abroad students, undergraduate continuous enrollment students, and full-time undergraduate students accounted for under the Mount Vernon Campus Plan Order (BZA Order No. 16505), which does not differentiate between resident and non-resident students.
 - B. Once either of the above-described events occurs, the terms shall have the same meaning as above, except only full-time undergraduate students who reside on the Mount Vernon Campus plan will be subtracted from the “Foggy Bottom/Mount Vernon Campus Total Student Body.”
 - ii. The term “on-campus beds” shall include beds available to full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate students in any property in which the University has an ownership, leasehold, or contractual interest, or beds otherwise occupied by full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate students in fraternities, sororities, or other programs recognized by or affiliated with the University and located within the campus plan boundary.

The University’s efforts with respect to this Condition shall be monitored by the Advisory Committee.

GW Response:

	Spring 2025 ¹	Fall 2025 ²
Full-Time Foggy Bottom Undergraduate Students	7,856	8,743

Evidence of Compliance with Condition C-8 (Off-Campus Housing Information Program)

Condition:

The University shall maintain a program to provide its students who are eligible to live off-campus with information about housing opportunities outside the Foggy Bottom/West End Area. The University's efforts with respect to this Condition shall be monitored by the Advisory Committee."

GW Response:

Information regarding housing opportunities both within and outside the Foggy Bottom/West End area is provided on the off-campus student affairs website. These functions are managed through several offices in the Division for Student Affairs, including Health Promotions & Education and GW Campus Living and Residential Education.

Apartment listings and other off campus housing opportunities may be found at <http://www.gwoffcampus.com>.

The off-campus student affairs website can be found at: <https://offcampus.students.gwu.edu>. The current edition of the Guide to Living Off-Campus is also posted on this webpage.

For screen prints from the off-campus student affairs website, see Attachment D.

Evidence of Compliance with Condition C-9 (Student Conduct Programs)

Condition:

The University shall use disciplinary interventions for acts of misconduct by students living off-campus in the Foggy Bottom/West End Area, even if the students are not in properties owned or controlled by the University. The University shall act on incident reports by residents, ANC 2A, community associations, building management, building association boards, University security officers, and the Metropolitan Police Department. The University shall maintain an outreach program with neighboring apartment buildings to education management companies and tenant associations on the University's disciplinary program and its reporting requirements to facilitate effective use of its programs. The University's efforts with respect to this Condition shall be monitored by the Advisory Committee.

GW Response:

The University treats off-campus student conduct with the same seriousness as on-campus issues, maintaining full compliance with the requirement to use disciplinary interventions for off-campus misconduct. The George Washington University Code of Student Conduct and the Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities ensure students are held to the same level of accountability regardless of their residential location. The Office of Conflict Education and Student Accountability (CESA) asserts jurisdiction over off-campus behavior in the Foggy Bottom/West End area that negatively impacts the residential community, disrupts the peace, or violates local ordinances (e.g., noise, public intoxication, damage to property). Disciplinary action is routinely applied to students involved in off-campus incidents regardless of whether the property is owned or controlled by the University (i.e., private residences, third-party managed apartments, and public spaces). Responses to violations range from warning letters and conversations to formal student conduct charges and hearings, all managed by CESA. Disciplinary outcomes may include educational sanctions, deferred suspension, suspension, or expulsion, depending on the severity and recurrence of the violation.

The Office of Conflict Education and Student Accountability (CESA) maintains a clear, centralized, and accessible reporting mechanism to ensure all mandated sources can submit incident reports, and that the University acts upon them promptly. Community members can submit a report about off-campus student behavior directly to the GW Office on Conflict Education & Student Accountability (CESA) using the publicly accessible online incident reporting form, titled "Community Concerns and Incident Report." The CESA is directed to accept and act upon all incident reports where students are identified, ensuring action is taken on reports received from area residents and neighbors. Upon receipt of a qualifying off-campus incident report where a student is identified, the CESA commits to initiating an intake and preliminary review process to determine appropriate next steps, which may include formal charges under the Code of Conduct or referral to mediation.

The University maintains an ongoing, multi-faceted outreach program designed to inform the community about the student disciplinary process and facilitate effective reporting, alongside regular engagement with community bodies. GW representatives from the Office of Government & Community Relations (OGCR) and other offices regularly attend neighborhood meetings to provide updates and hear community feedback. This includes regular attendance and presentation of updates at the Foggy Bottom Association (FBA), the West End Citizens Association (WECA), Advisory Neighborhood Commission 2A (ANC 2A) meetings, and Quarterly Campus Planning Advisory Committee (CPAC) meetings. Furthermore, the OGCR hosts a quarterly "Building Managers Meetings" throughout the academic year specifically to educate property management companies, leasing agencies, and major apartment building associations on the University's disciplinary program and its reporting requirements, keeping communication lines open with properties where students reside. Lastly, the OGCR proactively engages with the community via our bi-weekly neighborhood newsletter to directly communicate the University's expectations for off-campus student behavior and to field questions regarding the disciplinary reporting process.

The University understands and respects the role of the Advisory Committee in monitoring compliance with Condition C-9. For transparency, all documented community concern reports received by the University are publicly available online for review at: <https://neighborhood.gwu.edu/reports>. Additionally, the University is prepared to provide aggregate, anonymized data regarding the number and nature of off-campus student conduct cases processed within the Foggy Bottom/West End area, subject to FERPA regulations, during regular meetings with the Advisory Committee. The University welcomes the Advisory Committee to periodically review the outreach materials, reporting mechanisms, and general processes outlined in the preceding sections to ensure continued efficacy and compliance with the spirit and letter of Condition C-9.

The University asserts that the established policies, protocols, and outreach initiatives demonstrate comprehensive and sustained compliance with all provisions of Condition C-9

All community concern reports can be found online at <https://neighborhood.gwu.edu/reports>.

Evidence of Compliance with Condition C-10 (24/7 Hotline)

Condition:

The University shall maintain and publicize (through appropriate written and/or electronic publications) a hotline available 24 hours per day, seven days per week to receive calls about student conduct issues and safety and security concerns. The University shall maintain a log of all calls received and all actions taken, including all referrals made. The University shall maintain its Crimes Tips Hotline (presently 994-TIPS), where calls can be made anonymously to a recorded "tip" line. Calls needing a more immediate response shall be directed to the University police (presently 994-6110) 24 hours per day, seven days per week. The University police will aid off-campus complainants in obtaining assistance from the Metropolitan Police Department. Reports of improper off-campus student conduct will also be referred to the appropriate University departments for their attention. This process shall be fully described on the University website, published catalogs, and student handbooks. The University's efforts with respect to this Condition shall be monitored by the Advisory Committee."

GW Response:

The University maintains and actively publicizes a primary 24 hours per day, seven days per week hotline for community members to raise concerns about student conduct issues and general safety and security matters. The best way for community members to bring GW-related concerns to our attention is to use the online reporting tool located at <https://neighborhood.gwu.edu/contact-us>. If a community member prefers to call, they may dial the 24-Hour Community Concern Hotline (202-994-6110), which is monitored by the GW Police Department (GWPD) Communication Center and available 24 hours per day, seven days per week. The Hotline is advertised and described online on the GW Neighborhood website and through appropriate written and electronic publications, including the public-facing GW Neighborhood website. Furthermore, for community members who wish to offer information anonymously, the University maintains a separate Crimes Tips Hotline (202-994-TIPS), which is monitored directly by the GW Chief of Police and allows calls to be made anonymously to a recorded line.

Calls requiring a more immediate safety or security response are immediately directed to the GWPD Hotline at 202-994-6110. The University is committed to being a good neighbor and working with community members to respond to complaints regarding student behavior. When the complaint involves student behavior that occurs off campus, which is outside of GWPD's primary jurisdictional boundaries, GWPD will enlist the assistance of the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) to respond to the complaint, thereby aiding off-campus complainants in obtaining necessary law enforcement assistance. Reports of improper off-campus student conduct are also referred to the appropriate University departments for their attention. For both on-campus and off-campus concerns, the University will follow up with the community member regarding the complaint if contact information is provided. Specifically, the University's trash policy allows off-campus trash concerns to be addressed under the Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities as defined by the Office of Conflict Education & Student Accountability (CESA). Reported concerns are investigated by CESA, which then communicates with student residents when they fail to meet their responsibilities within the community.

To ensure full transparency and compliance, the University maintains a comprehensive, standardized record of all reports received via the online reporting tool, including actions taken by the University in response to the tool. The University further demonstrates transparency by publishing an annual Community Concern Report, which includes documented community concern reports. This annual report is shared with the ANC, FBA, and WECA and can be found online at <https://neighborhood.gwu.edu/reports>.

The University asserts that the established 24/7 hotline, the defined response protocols, and the commitment to publicizing and sharing the report with our community stakeholders demonstrate comprehensive and sustained compliance with all provisions of this Condition.

For screen prints from the Off-Campus Student Affairs website, see Attachment D. Attachment E provides screen prints from the Neighborhood.gwu.edu website.

Evidence of Compliance with Condition C-11 (Good Neighbor Program)

Condition:

The University will maintain a mandatory program for its students that will address “good neighbor” issues, educating students about appropriate conduct in the off-campus community. This program will especially emphasize objectionable noise both inside and outside of buildings, restricted parking in the Foggy Bottom/West End Area, illegal underage drinking, and respect for personal and real property of the residential and private business communities. The University’s efforts with respect to this Condition shall be monitored by the Advisory Committee”

GW Response:

The University maintains a robust and mandatory educational program to address "good neighbor" issues and educate students on appropriate conduct in the off-campus community, fully complying with this condition. The cornerstone of this program is the required “Being a Good Neighbor” online orientation, which is delivered to all undergraduate students, regardless of whether they live on- or off-campus. This mandatory orientation directly addresses the specific issues outlined in the condition, including objectionable noise both inside and outside of buildings, adherence to restricted parking regulations in the Foggy Bottom/West End Area, the seriousness of illegal underage drinking, and the critical need for respect for personal and real property of both residential and private business communities. Furthermore, all students at GW are held accountable through the established student conduct process as defined in the Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities and the Code of Student Conduct, which explicitly addresses and enforces appropriate behavior for both on- and off-campus misconduct.

The mandatory orientation is supplemented by a comprehensive outreach program designed to reinforce core "good neighbor" principles. All students who make the transition from on-campus to off-campus housing are provided access to copies of the GW Guide to Living Off-Campus and the Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities. These resources are made readily available to students at the graduate student services fair, the off-campus housing fair, or at graduate orientation, and are permanently accessible through a link on the Off-Campus Student Affairs website at <https://offcampus.students.gwu.edu/>. Each year, the GW Division of Student Affairs, in collaboration with GW and D.C. partners—including the GW Police Department, the Office of Conflict Education & Student Accountability (CESA), and several off-campus partners—hosts an Off-Campus Student Services Fair. Students attending this event are provided with detailed information pertaining to living off-campus, with a special emphasis on how to be a good neighbor. Additionally, the Office of Conflict Education & Student Accountability sends a targeted “Good Neighbor” message every fall to remind students of the importance of responsible conduct and to raise awareness of their behavior, with this letter posted in on-campus residence halls and specific, targeted emails distributed to off-campus students before major events such as Halloween. The University also works in direct partnership with the Foggy Bottom Association to develop and distribute informative materials to students in the near neighborhoods, utilizing hard copy distribution, community events, and electronic dissemination.

To ensure the mandatory program and all related outreach remain relevant and effective, the University is committed to regularly updating the content of these sessions and documents. This proactive approach allows the University to quickly react to emerging issues or persistent community concerns related to good neighbor conduct as they arise. The University acknowledges the role of the Advisory Committee in monitoring the efforts related to this Condition. The success of the mandatory program is inherently linked to the documented outcomes of student conduct processes, and the University welcomes the Advisory Committee to periodically review the educational content and program efficacy to demonstrate continued compliance with the letter and spirit of this Condition.

See Attachment F for materials evidencing GW’s efforts in this area. It is also online at <https://offcampus.students.gwu.edu/>.

Evidence of Compliance With Condition C-12 (Local Address Information)

Condition:

The University shall gather information about the local addresses of the full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate population. The University shall compile and report the number of full-time Foggy Bottom undergraduate students residing in (1) Foggy Bottom/West End outside the campus boundaries; (2) the District of Columbia outside both the campus boundaries and the Foggy Bottom/West End Area, organized by postal codes; (3) Maryland; and (4) Virginia.

GW Response:

	Fall 2025
Full-Time Foggy Bottom Undergraduates residing in Foggy Bottom/West End outside the campus boundaries	1431
Full-Time Foggy Bottom Undergraduates residing in the District of Columbia outside both the campus boundaries and the Foggy Bottom/West End Area	602
Full-Time Foggy Bottom Undergraduates residing in Maryland	233
Full-Time Foggy Bottom Undergraduates residing in Virginia	844

For detailed data regarding local address information, see Attachment G.

Evidence of Compliance With Condition C-13 (Off-Street Parking Inventory)

Condition:

The University shall continue to provide at least 2,800 off-street parking spaces, including proposed spaces to be dedicated for university use on Square 54 and all University-owned parking spaces on Square 122 (specifically including the parking lot and garage spaces located at 1922 F Street, NW). The number of off-street parking spaces required to be provided may be increased in any subsequent further processing order pursuant to this plan if necessary to mitigate the adverse impact of the approved uses on the University's parking resources. The University shall monitor its utilization of University parking facilities to determine usage patterns and conduct an ongoing assessment of parking needs.

GW Response:

Number of University-provided off-street parking spaces located in areas covered under this condition: 3,011 Fall 2025

For detailed information regarding the number of off-campus parking spaces per garage, see Attachment H.

Evidence of Compliance With Condition C-14 (Transportation Management Plan)

Condition:

The University shall maintain, and periodically update, its comprehensive Transportation Management Plan ("TMP") addressing traffic and parking associated with events on campus that are attended by a significant number of persons not normally associated with the University and the campus. The transportation management plan shall include the following:

- a. Measures to schedule events at times that reduce conflicts with other traffic and other demands for parking.*
- b. Measures to discourage travel by private automobile and encourage travel by public transportation.*
- c. Measures to encourage persons who drive to park in commercial or University parking garages.*
- d. Designation of a Transportation Management Coordinator responsible for implementing and monitoring the TMP program.*
- e. Promotion of various technology initiatives (currently including, e.g., the use of video conferencing, podcasts, online library resources, the Bb@GW on-line course management system based on the Blackboard Learning System™, and administrative document management system) to reduce the need for physical movement to and between the Foggy Bottom and other GW campuses.*
- f. Evaluation of opportunities to provide access and links through appropriate website portals to allow members of the University community to purchase transit fare media, including SmarTrip fare cards and bus passes, online.*
- g. As necessary throughout the term of the Campus Plan, when existing parking facilities are being renovated or redeveloped, utilization of attendant parking at various campus parking facilities to ensure that campus parking demands are adequately met.*

These measures and their efficacy and appropriateness given changes in programs, technology, and parking demand shall be regularly reviewed, evaluated, and updated over the twenty-year term of the Campus Plan. The TMP shall be submitted to and reviewed by the Advisory Committee on an annual basis.

GW Response:

The University has had a transportation management plan in place on its Foggy Bottom Campus for a number of years. A variety of measures are used to limit transportation demand and eliminate adverse traffic and parking impacts.

Most importantly, the Foggy Bottom Campus is located adjacent to many public transit opportunities, including: Foggy Bottom-GWU Metrorail station on campus and easy access to Farragut West and Farragut North stations; numerous Metrobus locations on and near campus as well as one of DC's circulator routes; numerous Capital Bikeshare stations on and near campus. Given these options, the University encourages public transit and transportation alternatives for students, employees and visitors alike.

Since 2007 the University has participated in pre-tax Metro SmartBenefits. Beginning in 2021, GW has joined the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority's (WMATA) U-Pass program, providing full-time students with unlimited use of Metrorail and Metrobus for a discounted, flat fee. As a commitment to sustainability GW has installed electric car charging stations in parking facilities and these stations provide convenience for those that choose to drive electric vehicles to campus.

GW also encourages students, faculty and staff to utilize car sharing to accommodate the occasional requirement for automobile transportation whether for university business or personal matters. Carpooling programs and car sharing companies have been promoted through flyers and information provided at university fairs and events. Since 2007 the University has worked to promote car sharing memberships.

University populations are primarily encouraged to utilize public transportation. University parking is priced at market rates. Those faculty staff and students who drive to campus are encouraged to park in university garages by allowing for parking fees to be paid by payroll deduction (for regular parkers) or via funds deposited onto the GWorld card. The university regularly schedules special events, including athletic events and entertainment events at times outside of the peak traffic hours.

The University has continued to encourage bike use and currently provides space for approximately 940 bicycles through surface bike racks/loops and secure interior building racks throughout the Foggy Bottom Campus. Showers and changing areas are provided in buildings throughout campus. Furthermore, the University is encouraging bike sharing through Capital Bikeshare, which has recently installed several locations on and near the Foggy Bottom Campus. The University offers students, faculty and staff a discounted annual rate on Capital Bikeshare membership. The university worked at length with DC Government officials to expand this discount to students in 2019.

In addition, with the implementation of the University's Climate Action Plan (CAP) in the spring of 2010, other initiatives are being explored in an effort to reduce single-occupancy-trips and reduce vehicle trips on Campus. For instance, in 2013 the University initiated a telecommuting program for GW staff and faculty. GW also has transitioned to propane fueled buses for the Vern Express.

The University currently utilizes technology to limit required trips between its campuses, including online library sources, use of the Bb@GW on-line course management system based on the Blackboard Learning Systems, videoconferencing for administrative meetings, teleconferences and other similar technologies. In cases where transportation between campuses is necessary, GW provides regular shuttle service between its Mount Vernon and Foggy Bottom campuses via The Vern Express as well as regular shuttle service to the Virginia Science & Technology Campus from Foggy Bottom to limit individual vehicle trips.

In order to enhance access to information regarding transportation alternatives, the transportation link below provides information and campus transportation options business-services.gwu.edu/faculty-staff-parking. Other online information includes links to alternative transportation transportation.gwu.edu/alternative-transportation-services (to encourage public transit use), Metro pass sale information, and other sources of information. This resource is also at key locations on all GW campuses through resource center/kiosks.

Truck Management Plans are currently in place and will be updated as GW carries out new development on its campus.

For information evidencing GW's efforts in this area, see Attachment I.

OFF-CAMPUS STUDENT AFFAIRS

Off-Campus Student Affairs (OCSA) helps students transition from campus housing to independent living in the surrounding community. We offer resources, programs, and support to guide your journey and empower you to become an engaged, responsible neighbor.

BEGIN YOUR HOUSING SEARCH

GW's Off-Campus Housing website and our Guide to Living Off-Campus are two excellent resources to start your search and find housing options.

BE A GOOD NEIGHBOR MANDATORY TRAINING

Being part of the Foggy Bottom, West End, or Foxhall communities means enjoying vibrant culture, dining, and entertainment—but also being a respectful and engaged neighbor. To help you understand your role and responsibilities, all off-campus students must complete an online orientation.

QUESTIONS ON HOW TO DISPOSE OF SOMETHING IN DC?

Not sure if something is recyclable, needs a bulk pick-up, or counts as hazardous waste? The DC Department of Public Works (DPW) has a handy web app that helps you figure out how to properly dispose, recycle, reuse, or compost almost any item.

Need to schedule a bulk pick-up? Call 311 or visit the 311 service request website.

COMMUNITY

Living in the District of Columbia community is an important part of being a GW student. As such, please refer to the resources listed to the left to make sure you are getting the most out of your experience living in the District of Columbia.

Guide to Living Off Campus \(PDF\)

RESOURCES

Moving off campus is a major transition that brings a great deal of excitement and independence. The move to independent living signals a significant milestone in an individual's progression towards an autonomous lifestyle. Whether you are an undergraduate moving off campus, or a new transfer student or a graduate student moving to DC for the first time you'll find information and resources that will help your transition.

Along with the feeling of excitement and independence comes the responsibility of living in a neighborhood community. Similar to life in GW's residence halls, your new off-campus neighborhood will have various community standards to which all individuals are expected to adhere. Although this website will not address every aspect of community living, it will provide you with information about several key matters that you should take notice of as a resident of Historical Foggy Bottom, Foxhall, or other areas of the District of Columbia. Additional information is provided regarding practices in Virginia and Maryland.

TENANT RESPONSIBILITIES

State and local laws vary regarding the specific rights and responsibilities of tenants. However, there are some general responsibilities you assume when entering into a rental relationship. The following should be taken as general guidelines.

TENANT GUIDELINES

Pay your rent

You have to pay your rent on time without the landlord having to remind you.

Sign and keep a copy of the lease

You must be given a copy of the lease (rental agreement) within one month of the date you move in. Even if your landlord does not give you a copy of the lease, you are agreeing to the terms of the lease by occupying the apartment or paying the rent. Whether or not you have a copy, you are bound by the terms of the lease that you signed.

Follow the terms of the lease

You and the landlord must follow the terms of the lease. The only way you can be evicted before your lease is up is if you do not obey the terms of the lease.

Write down what damages there are to the apartment when you move in

You are responsible for documenting and providing your landlord a written list or checklist, listing everything that is wrong with your apartment when you move in. When you move out, if there are damages to the apartment that were not listed during those first five (5) days, you will be held responsible. The landlord has the right to charge you for the damages.

Keep your apartment in good condition

You must:

- Obey building and housing codes affecting health and safety.
- Keep the apartment as clean and safe as the conditions permit.
- Remove garbage, ashes, and waste in a clean and safe manner into the appropriate containers.
- Keep all plumbing fixtures in the apartment you use as clean as their condition permits.
- Notify the landlord of any repairs that need to be done to the apartment as soon as possible. The notice must be in writing and dated.
- Use all utilities and all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilation, air-conditioning, and other facilities and appliances including elevators on the property in a correct manner.
- Be responsible for your conduct and the conduct of other persons on the property whether known by you or not.
- Abide by all rules and regulations imposed by the landlord.

You must NOT:

- Deliberately or carelessly destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any of the property or permit any person to do so whether known by you or not.
- Remove or tamper with a properly working smoke detector.

Give proper notice before moving

You have to give your landlord a written notice in advance of the time you move out. Your lease should state how much time is enough notice. Usually you must give the landlord written notice that you plan to move at least 30 days before the rent is due. If you have a week-to-week lease then you must give a 10-day notice.

Provide correct information on your rental application

If you give false information on your application, the landlord has the right to end your lease.

Check out this great resource about renter's rights

SAFETY

Most students living off-campus rent apartments or group houses and as a consequence, live in group-living situations somewhat similar to residence hall life on campus. As with residence hall living, two of the major concerns in off-campus housing are security breaches and life safety hazards. However, since off-campus residents are without GW University Police personnel and residence hall staff, they must bear greater responsibility for their own safety. If you are an off-campus resident, you must be much more aware of possible dangers than those who live on campus.

The Office of Government and Community Relations

In October 2004, GW established the Office of District of Columbia and Foggy Bottom/West End Affairs to coordinate and cultivate the University's relationship with its neighbors, primarily in the Foggy Bottom/West End neighborhood. Today, under the name Office of Government and Community Relations \(OGCR\) our mission remains fundamentally the same. In addition to promoting collegial relationships and dialogue among the university, neighbors, DC government and others, the office also serves as the central intake point for community issues, and works to ensure a timely and effective response.

Being a Good Neighbor

The Office of Government and Community Relations, along with the Office of Conflict Education & Student Accountability and the Office of Off-Campus Student Affairs, are committed to educating students on how to become active and responsible members of the surrounding community. Together, we work to develop and enact educational initiatives for our students. Some of those initiatives include:

Orientation

An online program delivered through a timed portal that addresses "good neighbor" issues, educating students about appropriate conduct in the off-campus community. The program especially emphasizes objectionable noise both inside and outside of buildings, restricted parking in the Foggy Bottom/West End area, illegal underage drinking, and respect for personal and real property of the residential and private business communities.
