Re: ZC 11-02C; Request for a Continuance; Modification of Consequence -- the University of the District of Columbia

Dear Chairman Hood and Members of the Commission:

On June 14, 2018, the University submitted a request for a modification of consequence with respect to certain specific conditions of the University's Zoning Commission Order No. 11-02-11-02A. The University now respectfully requests that the Zoning Commission postpone its review of that application for a modification, as the University has determined it needs additional time in order to establish a deeper alignment with the community members. The University will notify the Zoning Commission once it has determined that it is ready for the application to be reviewed.

If there are any questions regarding this postponement request, please feel free to contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Giordano
Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr
