

OUTLINE OF TESTIMONY
Feras Qumseya/Logan Bailey-Perkins
CG Marketplace LLC

- I. Introduction and experience
- II. Proposed development
- III. Process of community participation
- IV. Conclusions

FERAS B. QUMSEYA, Vice President of Development- A&R Companies

Education:

- The George Washington University, School of Business and Public Management, Master of Science, MSIST, Thesis in Construction Management Systems, 2004
- Beloit College, Bachelor of Arts, Economics and Management and International Relations, 2000

Affiliations and Honors:

- Member, Urban Land Institute Young Leaders Council, Washington DC
- Board of Directors Member, Global Institute for Technology Advancements
- Member, Cambridge Who's Who Executive Director
- Director, Greater Baltimore Committee and United Way of Central Maryland
- Chief Information Officer Certificate, The U.S. General Service Administration
- Recipient, Entrepreneur of the Year Award, 2000
- Recipient, Sikandra Spain Memorial Award of Economic Development, 2000
- Board Representative, Institutional Ethics and Policy Committee, 2000

Projects Managed:

- St. Elizabeth's Redevelopment Initiative
- Phase I
- Park Morton Redevelopment
- Capitol Gateway Development
- Huntington Metro Station
- East Baltimore Development Initiative
- 300 West Baltimore Block Tower
- Bembe Beach Luxury Villas and Marina
- Rhode Island Metro Station