I understand that the Zoning Commission will very soon consider the Office of Planning's amendment to the Height Act to permit an additional 20 feet on top of structures in the District.

Without a public hearing on the matter, as sensitive as it is

Is not a public hearing on any aspect of the Height Act mandatory?

Congress itself indicated that any change to the Height Act (including this proposed change) would require changes to the Comprehensive Plan, public hearings, before such a matter could be taken up — legally

All the appropriate procedures and protocols have been violated in this matter.

Please do not permit OP's proposed amendment to the Height Act without following established procedures regarding public hearings.

Thank you
Kirby Vining, Stronghold.
