

I urge the Zoning Commission to approve this application. New housing opportunities like this project are critically important to achieving numerous goals of the city, including providing housing opportunities – both affordable and market rate – to a growing population, providing retail and commercial services to all communities, and creating housing and infrastructure that facilitates the use of alternative transportation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Toni Dach", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Toni Dach