Regarding Case Number 19-10

Our family moved to Spring Valley in the summer of 2013, and I fondly remember walking over to the Superfresh market with my newborn baby and two year old toddler in the stroller at that time.

Within a year, it closed and the site has been abandoned ever since. It's regrettable to have a boarded up supermarket and empty parking lot in neighborhoods such as Spring Valley and AU Park for years on end.

I have reviewed the Valor development plans for the Superfresh site and find them appropriate: they balance the reintroduction of walkable amenities and living space with the look, feel and pace of the neighborhood.

My family -- together with many others I know of -- welcomes and supports such a proposal. Please register my explicit support for this case.

Thank you,
