This case concerns the possibility of condominium units on the former Super Fresh site in AU Par which now looks like a surface parking lot.

I have lived in DC for 52 years. I was raised in MD and moved to DC as soon as I could. I am now 73 years old, love my house, love my neighborhood, but the house is getting to be just too much, and I would love to stay in this neighborhood. As a senior citizen I prefer to be close to friends, familiar shopping, walkability, and all the other amenities to which I have become attached. I also honor the inclusion of affordable housing in the Valor project. It is good for all people, for this specific community, for the city as a whole, for its schools, and for the country.

I am thoroughly in support of this project, and hope that that BZA will firmly approve it.
