

I urge the zoning commission to approve the application at 1617 U. I'm very concerned about the cost of housing in DC. Building more homes in dense neighborhoods near transit is a great way to lower rents, reduce homelessness, and stop climate change. A number of academic studies have shown that building housing, even market rate housing, lowers rents in the surrounding area. We desperately need more housing in DC. Please approve this application.

Submitted on 6/23/2023 by:
Maggie Dart Padover