On April 16, 2025, the Zoning Commission (the “Commission”) received an application from So Others Might Eat (the “Applicant”) for Voluntary Design Review (the “Application”). The Applicant is requesting approval of plans by the Commission to renovate, expand, and convert an existing rooming house to an apartment building pursuant to the Voluntary Design Review process.

The Property is in the Lincoln Park / Hill East neighborhood of Ward 7. The Property contains approximately 6,864 square feet of land area and is designated Moderate Density Residential on the Future Land Use Map and Neighborhood Conservation Area on the Generalized Policy Map of the District of Columbia Comprehensive Plan. The Property is located in the RF-1 Zone District.

The Applicant proposes to renovate and expand the existing building to convert it from a rooming house with 57 units to an apartment building with approximately 61 apartments (the “Project”). The Project will contain approximately 26,075 square feet of gross floor area and will be approximately 50 feet tall (i.e., within the height limit permitted in the RF-1 zone under the Voluntary Design Review process). The lot occupancy will remain unchanged at 80%. Also, in accordance with the Voluntary Design Review procedure, the Application includes requests flexibility from building height and rear yard development standards; and requests the following special exception and variance relief:
