Members of the Zoning Commission,

I live in DuPont circle, and i pay too much in rent. I've had to cut back on spending to afford rent, and watch too many friends be housing insecure. Alley housing is a great way to increase housing and lower prices in established neighborhoods like DuPont circle

I strongly support the proposed text amendment in ZC-25-06. Alley housing can help address affordability, increase neighborhood safety through active usage, and enhance community character.

But DC is in a housing crisis, and we urgently need to build more homes. To help support housing creation, the Zoning Commission should consider:

1. Eliminating expensive parking mandates for alley homes.
2. Aligning unit limits with the limits of their zones.
3. Aligning the height limits of alley homes with their zones.

These changes will help us build a more inclusive, vibrant, and affordable DC.
