I write in opposition to the proposal to create the Cleveland Park Neighborhood Mixed Use Zone, Case Number 25-09. The rezoning proposal filed by the Office of Planning with the DC Zoning Commission represents an unprecedented increase in density for the commercial area of the historic district. Extreme changes to the District's modest buildings would leave our historic buildings as little more than foundations for new construction. The city should be protecting our historic districts, not trying to convert them to bigger, more novel retail "zones".

Sincerely,

Judith Kennedy
