Re: Case No. 86-26

Dear Mr. Williams:

As a citizen and taxpayer of the District of Columbia for the past ten years and a resident of Cleveland Park, I am writing to let you know of my support of the Cleveland Park Historical Society's petition to rezone Connecticut Avenue in order to stop inappropriate high-rise development in a residential and low commercial density neighborhood.

Cleveland Park, as you know is primarily a residential neighborhood and was recently designated an historical district and put on the National Register. I am sure the entire D.C. Zoning Commission is aware of the serious traffic, parking and pollution problems which already exist on Connecticut Avenue between Macomb Street and Tilden Street.

I certainly hope the Zoning Commission will give all due respect to the Comprehensive Plan when evaluating this petition for rezoning. I feel sure that every citizen in Cleveland Park believes the neighborhood should remain a "low-density, local neighborhood center."

Thank you very much for your consideration. Let's keep our residential neighborhoods for the residents.

Sincerely,

Anne Wilson
