Dear Mr. Williams:

As a resident of Cleveland Park living in a house within a few blocks of Connecticut Avenue. I would hate to see massive buildings of the office building type make a corridor of Connecticut Ave. It would certainly change the nature of the neighborhood. This area should be kept as a low density neighborhood area as indicated by the Comprehensive Plan.

Buildings like those suggested by the Historical Society would be a reasonable amount of development and would fit the area now designated as Historic Area.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth M. Merwin
