Mr Lindsley Williams, Chairman
D.C. Zoning Commission
The District Building, Room 11
Washington, D.C.20004

Dear Mr Williams:

I am unequivocally supportive of the zoning change proposed by the CPHZ, Case# 86-26.

I am a new resident of Washington, and I purposely chose the Cleveland Park ~~area~~ in which to live due to the pleasant surroundings of greenery, historic and residential qualities it provides.

Therefore it would be a crime to destroy the ambiance of the neighborhood by the construction of large commercial/or residential buildings.

Furthermore, the added traffic, noise, and pollution would add to the insidious deterioration of the environment.

I do hope the government officials in my adopted city will actively show their regard for their city's neighborhoods.

Thank you for considering my plea.

Sincerely,

Gloria Howland
