Re: Case No. 86-26

Dear Mr. Williams:

I am writing to support the zoning proposal sponsored by the Cleveland Park Historical Society and others. I reside on Connecticut Avenue, near Cleveland Park. The area at present is congested, but livable. The zoning proposal is necessary to prevent massive commercial development that would make the area unlivable.

I urge you to consider that granting the proposal would, at worst, reduce the profits available to commercial developers from extremely large to very large. Denying the proposal, however, risks destroying an entire neighborhood.

Sincerely,

Randall W. Quinn
