

2800 Ordway St NW
Wash. DC. 20008

Jan 25, 1988

Mr. Lindsay Wilkins
D.C. Zoning Commission
The District Building
Washington, DC. 20004

ZONING COMMISSION

CASE No. 86-26
EXHIBIT No. 359

1988 JAN 28 AM 11:32
ZONING SECRETARIAT, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Dear Mr. Wilkins,

I am writing in reference to Case #86-26. As a resident of Cleveland Park who lives $\frac{1}{2}$ block from the intersection of Ordway St. and Connecticut Avenue, I am enormously concerned that the development ~~of the~~ Connecticut corridor remain a small-scale, low-density commercial strip. Allowing large office buildings in this area is inappropriate in an historic district and is not in line with the city's Comprehensive Plan. I urge you to consider the residents needs and ^{their} desire to preserve the character of Cleveland Park when considering Case #86-26. As an occupant of the fourth house up Ordway Street from Connecticut Avenue, I can assure you large scale development will ~~make~~ adversely affect the quality of life on Cleveland Park's residential streets. Those of us who live near the avenue already are contending on a daily basis with congested traffic, pollution, and the inability to ever park in front of our own homes. I urge you to consider our needs as well as those of the developers and vote in favor of rezoning Connecticut Avenue to prevent unwarranted commercial development.

Thank you very much,
 Susa O'Sullivan