Dear Mr. Williams:

As a resident of the Cleveland Park area, I am very upset to learn that the Safeway store at 3427 Connecticut Ave., NW will be closing in October. This will be extremely difficult on area residents, especially for the elderly and handicapped, who depend on this store for easy shopping.

I am protesting this closing and ask for your support in keeping it opened until another market can take its place.

I would appreciate anything that you can do about this serious situation.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Dawn F. White
