Re: 1331 L Street, NW
Minor Modification to Approved Planned Unit Development
Zoning Commission Case No. 94-01A

RECEIVED

Dear Members of the Zoning Commission:

This letter is submitted in support of our neighbor's request for minor modification to an approved planned unit development for 1331 L Street, NW. As we understand, this minor modification will allow for revisions to the exterior design of the building only and that no changes are proposed to the overall building bulk, height, or uses in the building from what the Zoning Commission originally approved several years ago. We are also aware that the planned unit development for 1331 L Street, NW, included a significant amenity package relating to housing construction in the neighborhood and elsewhere in the District, all of which has been satisfied.

We look forward to this project finally moving forward and request that the Zoning Commission approve the modification request.

Sincerely,
