Government of the District of Columbia

ZONING COMMISSION

CLOSING STATEMENT (RULEMAKING CASE)

Ladies and Gentlemen, the other members of the Commission and I wish to thank all of you for your testimony and assistance in this hearing.

The record in this case will be kept open until January 24, 1997 for submissions of any additional information. Any special information or reports specifically requested by the Commission should be filed during the period ending on January 24, 1997 in Suite 210 of this building (441 4th Street, N.W.).

The Commission will make a decision on this case at one of its regular monthly meetings, following the closing of the record. These meetings are held at 1:30 p.m. on the second Monday of each month, with some exceptions, and are open to the public. If any individual is interested in following this case further, I suggest that you contact the staff to determine whether your case is on the agenda of a particular meeting.

You should also be aware, that if the Commission proposes affirmative action, that proposed action must be referred to the National Capital Planning Commission (NCPC) for federal impact review. The Zoning Commission will take final action
