PERSONNEL

Libby Hampton, NCIDQ

Designer III

As a designer in Streetsense's interior Architecture studio, Libby focuses on developing the interior design of restaurant and hospitality projects from concept through production. Libby graduated from Appalachian State University with a BS in Interior Design and worked as an Interior Designer for SfL+a Architects, a commercial Architecture firm based in Raleigh, prior to returning to graduate school. Libby graduated with a Masters of Architecture with a Certificate of Urban Design from the University of Maryland, where her thesis brought attention to the relationship between digital and physical public space.

PERSONNEL

Alexander P Crawford, AIA, LEED AP

Director of Interior Architecture

Alex brings over a decade of specific experience in restaurant and hospitality projects in the DC area and across the US. He has worked with some of the largest and most respected restaurant groups in the region and nation, creating over a dozen concepts for clients such as Great American restaurants, Clyde's Restaurant Group, Tupelo Honey Hospitality, and more.

In addition to his dedication to the finest design solution, Alex emphasizes a results-based design philosophy, insisting that projects consistently launch on time and on budget. He develops relationships with key design and construction partners, which streamlines workflow, coordination, and delivery of the end product.

Alex earned his Master of Architecture from the Catholic University of America School of Architecture and Planning. He is a member of the American Institute of Architects as well as several restaurant and retail design associations.
