Attachment #4

It appears as though these areas do require structural evaluation. Also, please have your engineering team evaluate the crawl space, so that it may be properly insulated and a vapor barrier installed. Your mechanical engineer may want to look at the venting requirements.

Thank you

Kind regards,

Jeff

See attachments.

Ms. Lockridge, first and foremost, thank you very much for your assistance. I would appreciate any insight into this matter. I had purchased this place in October 2016 and have always paid taxes and water at a commercial rate. I have spoken with many departments to include the tax department, Mr. Clark, who confirmed that the property is taxed at a commercial rate (see attachments). He had indicated that they typically obtain their information from DCRA. However, DCRA indicated that it's residential. There is so much confusion regarding this.

I have spent several days at DCRA regarding the matter. Initially, I informed that the property complied with a medical office use and that they were going to give me a conditional certificate of occupancy. The next day, I met with the inspector at the property for inspection. I returned to DCRA the same day and was informed that I was given the wrong information (i.e., the property did not comply with the definition of medical office use). Therefore, I would have to go through the BZA process to obtain permission to change the zoning from residential to medical office use. I understand the process could take up to six months and that's why we were trying to obtain conditional certificate occupancy. However, I'm not understanding and confused since the property is deemed commercial with one entity and residential with another. I have no problems fixing the needed repairs. Off note, I had two contractors see the place for estimate and they did not find any significant issues. Nonetheless, we did take pictures and sent to Mr. Reiss for confirmation on 3//18/29 with no reply as off this date. I'm not sure what's going on.

Sincerely, Angelina Dickerson

CCC Certificate of Occupancy (C of O) Application

What is a C of O? A document that certifies your building/structure/land is safe to occupy in accordance with local zoning regulations and building codes. All buildings/structures/land in the District of Columbia that are not single-family homes, require a C of O to legally use them. One is needed every time a change occurs (e.g., new construction and changes to use, ownership, and occupancy load).
