Dear BZA,

I am a neighbor in Georgetown in the West Village and I support the BZA granting Call Your Mother deli a zoning variance so that they can open their doors to our community. Rather than another bank (☺), this is exactly the kind of business our village needs to keep it special. It will give us somewhere to quickly grab a bite of REAL and quality food rather than yet another 7-11 or Wawa.

Thank you very much.
