Board of Zoning Adjustment District of Columbia Case No. 20144 Exhibit No. 01

The image shows the exterior of a grey brick building. On the left, there are two tall, narrow windows with white frames and decorative moldings. The left window is double-paned and reflects a red tree. The right window is also double-paned and has a grey screen. To the right of the windows, a grey downspout runs vertically. Further right, the house number '1832' is mounted on the wall in a silver, metallic font. Below the number is a black, rectangular mailbox with a decorative circular pattern. On the far right, a portion of a brown door with a white frame is visible. A grey metal railing is seen at the bottom right corner. The building is situated next to a yellow building on the left.

1832
